

PELMEL

Foreword

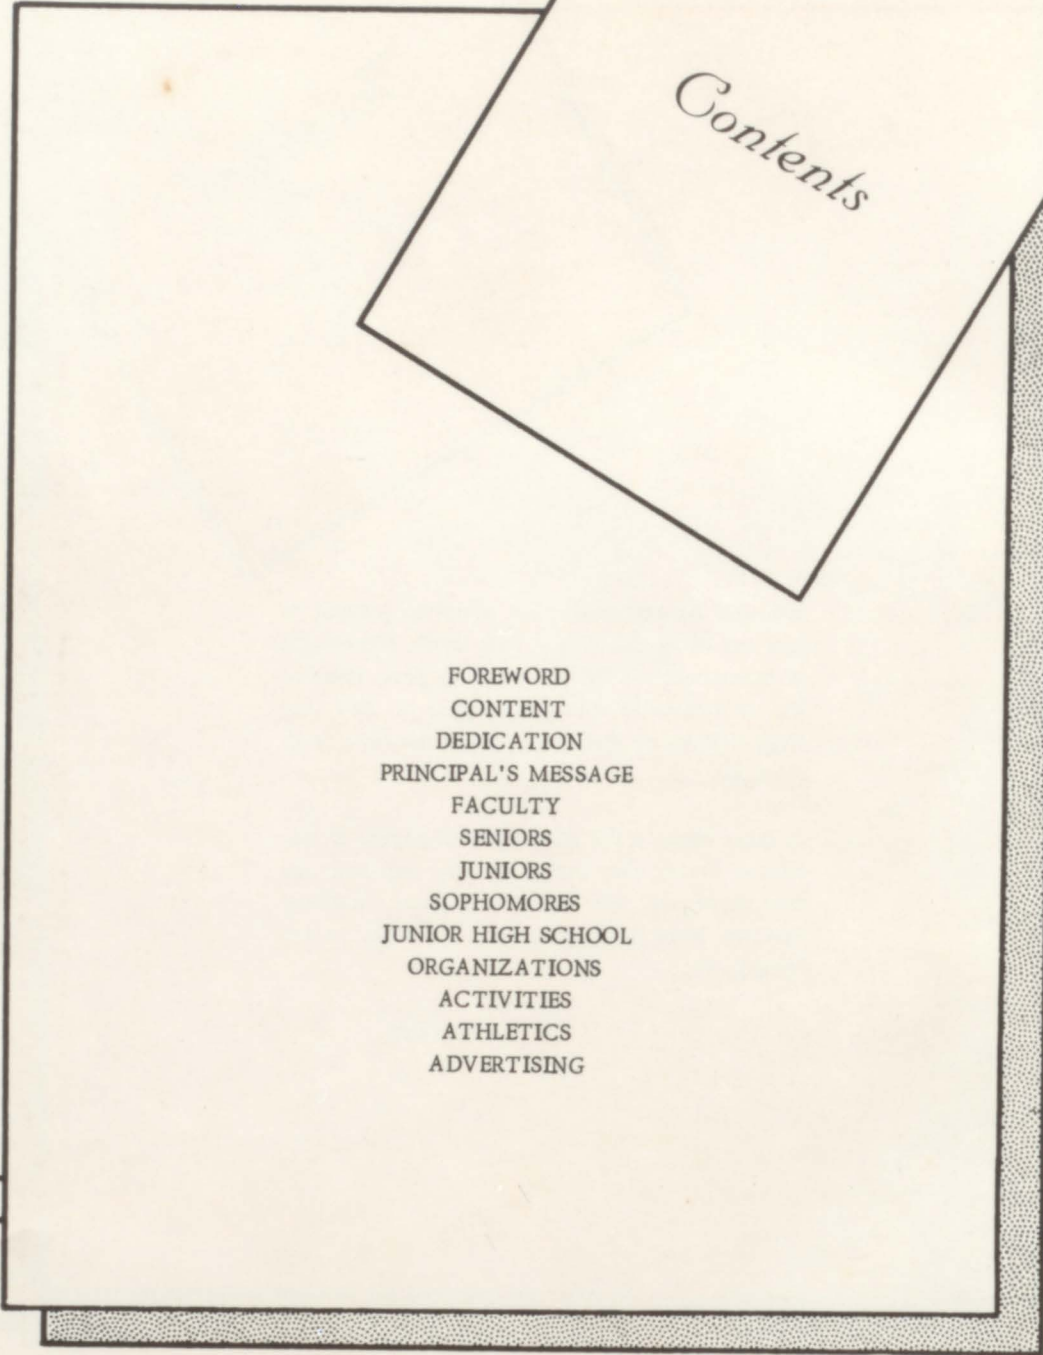

We, the Annual Staff, are proud to present to you our 1959 PELMEL. This book has caught glimpses here and there, so that in years to come the activities of this school year at Pell City High will not be dimmed and will not fade from memory.

In later years, while turning these pages, if you should recall the many smiles, sorrows, and dreams of '59, we shall be content, knowing that we have done the thing we were called upon to do.

Dedication

In memory of Mr. Louis Harrison whose devotion to the cause of education and all that is good, has been an inspiration to our school, community, and nation, we proudly dedicate the 1959 Pelmel.

THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1959

TO THE STUDENTS OF
PELL CITY HIGH:

I would like to congratulate the annual staff for the fine work you have done on this annual. I am sure it will be a record of your high school days.

It is my desire that the training you have received in school will enable you to take your proper place in society. The development of character must go along with the accumulation of knowledge. I hope that all of you will develop a good character and a sincere faith in God to help you carry out your purpose in life.

I wish you the greatest success in anything that you undertake.

A black and white photograph of two graduates in caps and gowns standing on a grassy field at night, looking up at a sky filled with many stars. The scene is dimly lit, with the stars providing the primary light source. The graduates are in profile, facing right. The sky is dark with numerous white stars of varying sizes scattered across it.

and Our Hopes for the Future

"It is enough. Love leaves my soul with memory."

These words close our book. We have tried to interpret to you the relation of students to trees. As the tree sends our roots and leaves so we students, take to the world habits and character, which have been formed in school.

We have tried to show to you a typical school day, which is full of work and learning. As these thoughts linger with us, we shall remember "Where'er we roam, whatever realms to see. Our hearts untravelled turns to thee" - Pell City High.
