PELL CITY HIGH SCHOOL

PELMEL 1965

Foreword

"At the Crossroads"

Sooner or later all of us come to the Crossroads of Life - the road leading out from our high school days and the road leading in to the world in which we must take our places as adult citizens.

During childhood and teenage years we tread narrow and straight but well-defined roads of which our parents and teachers are the keepers. As we leave these well-paved roads, we reach a labyrinth of paths - paths at times narrow and twisting, at times broad and bright. They will lead to high places or to low, and sometimes nowhere at all. They will be frequented by true guides and faithful friends and again may be beset by false guides and faithless foes.

As we approach the forks of our vast crossroads, may the truths of our home training and our education at Pell City High School come to full fruition and finest harvests. With these thoughts in mind, the theme, "At the Crossroads," is embodied in the pages of the 1965 Pelme1.

What is a high school?

When you think of a high school, what do you see?

This is the picture that comes to me:
A high school is people - teenagers
and all.

It's activities and classes and a rush
in the hall.

It's panic o'er report cards; it's black and gold.

It's thrills and excitement that never grow old.

Suspense fills the hallways, and rivalry's keen.

All yearn for scholarship; who will be queen?

A high school means projects and clubs
with their fun,

And everyone working till all tasks
are done;

Tense moments at ballgames - Will we win or not?

That "Fierce Panther" spirit means
more than we thought!

What is a high school? What is its story?

We're telling it here in all its glory!

A Message From Student Council President

This has been a most successful school year - a year that has meant much to all of us. The student council has had wonderful co-operation from everyone connected with the school. Each student has filled a special place in this year's school program. Through everyone's friendly attitude and willingness to work, much has been accomplished for the good of the school.

Whatever help I may have been to any of my fellow students has been an opportunity and an extreme joy. I will always remember this year and be thankful for the small part which I have been allowed to play.

Sincerely,

Leigh Gray

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Leigh Gray". The signature is written in a cursive style with a long horizontal flourish at the end.

A Message From Our Principal

This edition of the PELMEL marks the second year that it has been my pleasure to serve as your principal of Pell City High School.

This year's edition will be a treasure for you in years to come. It will recall many friends and experiences during your high school days.

I am happy to have played a part, however small, in helping to provide for your high school education. I remain ready to assist you in any way that I can in your continued search for knowledge.

Sincerely yours,

Roy E. Mann, Principal

Dedication

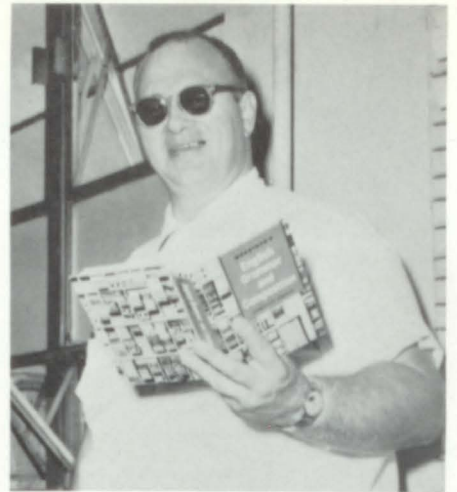

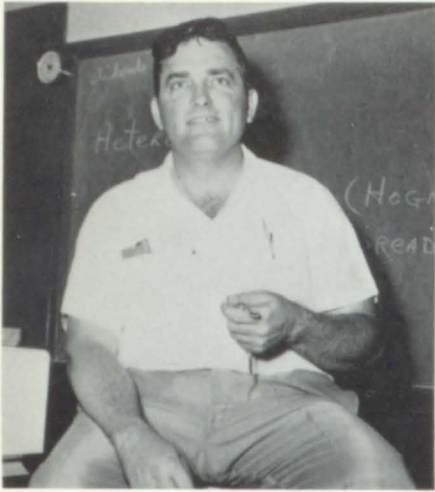

In an attempt to express our gratitude to one who has played an important role in the lives of all students of Pell City High School, we the senior class of '65 dedicate this PelmeI to Mrs. Elizabeth C. Starnes.

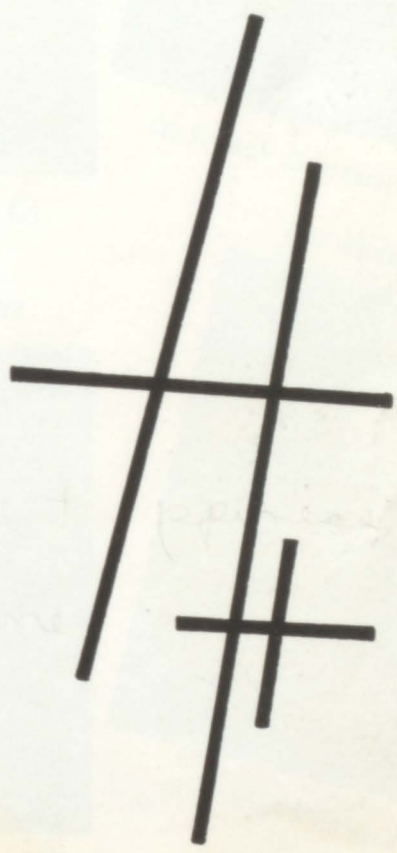

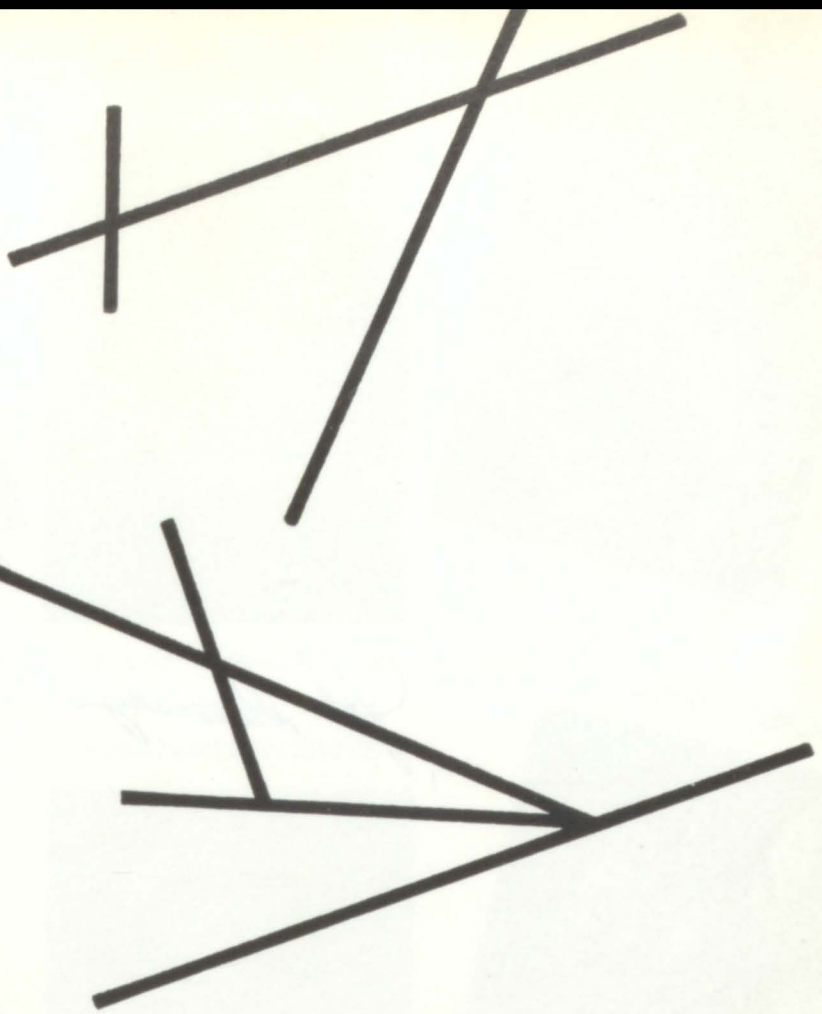

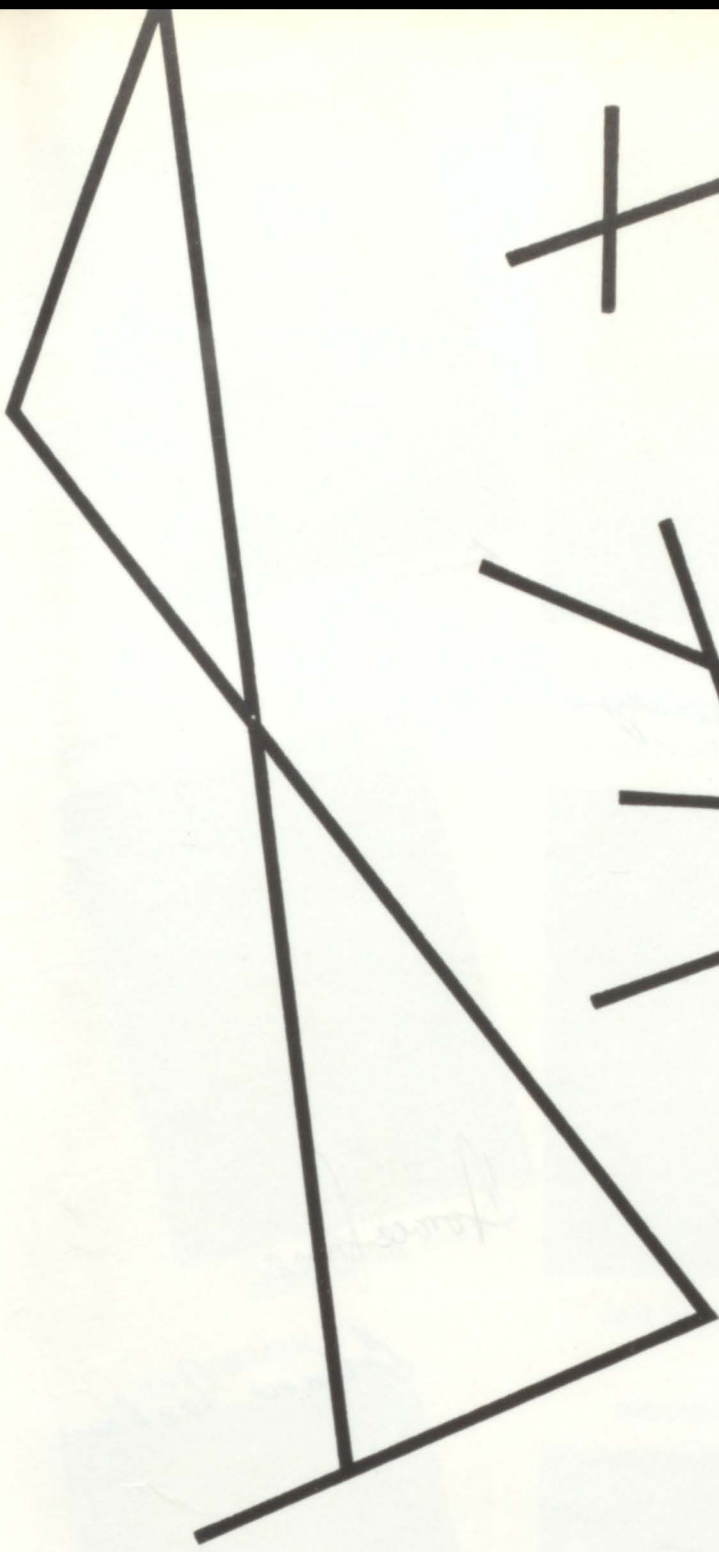

Mrs. Starnes has always been ready to assist any student with both school and personal problems. She has encouraged each student through her own strength, perseverance, and dignity and she has allowed no obstacle to prevent her being a truly dedicated teacher.

It is with pride and humbleness that we present this small token of appreciation to you, Mrs. Starnes, and it is our earnest desire that you receive as much happiness in this presentation as we do.

Good luck and happiness,
E. Atarnes

OUR WINDMILL!!

Jr - Sr
Prom
1964

The seal in its entirety represents every phase of life at Pell City High School. The picture of the front of the school personalizes the seal, especially for us. The lamp of learning is a standard symbol of the academic and scholastic program, and the Panther is symbolic of the spirit of our school in all extracurricular activities.

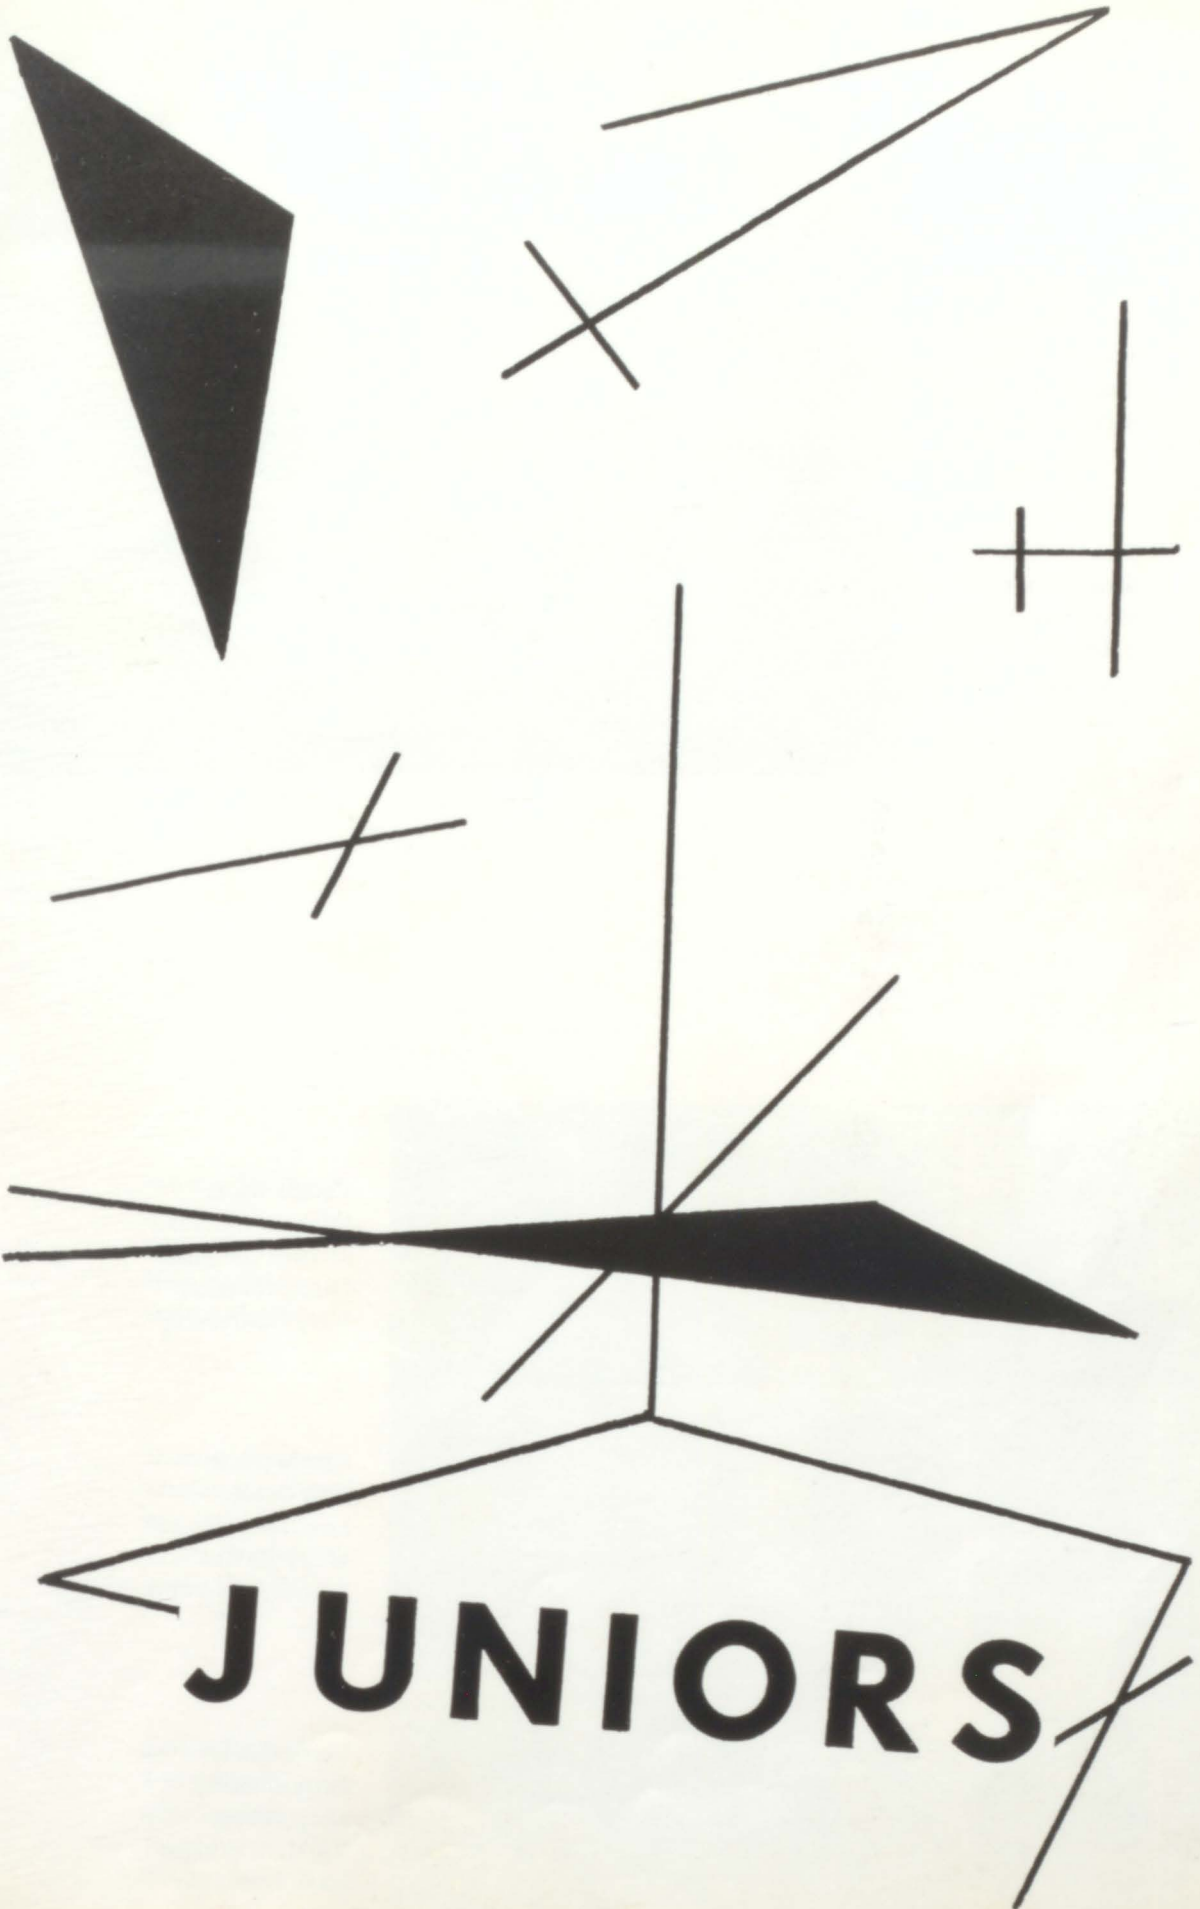

Jerry D. Gallups

Ronald Cook

Jerry D. Gallups

On November 23, 1964, Pell City High School students adopted a seal to represent our Alma Mater. The idea originated with the student council who sent a proposed sketch to Herff-Jones who then prepared the seal as you see it above. This seal will be used on invitations, stationery, and other official school papers.

The page features an abstract geometric design composed of several black lines and shapes. In the top left, there is a solid black triangle with lines extending from its vertices. A large, thin-lined shape resembling a sail or a curved arrow points from the top left towards the center. To the right, another thin-lined shape points upwards. In the lower left, a series of intersecting lines forms a grid-like pattern. In the lower right, two lines intersect to form a solid black triangle. The text 'H JUNIOR G H' is centered in the lower half of the page.

First of all thank-you for letting us participate in your contest, although it was very difficult to pick one; they all are bright and lovely girls. Our choice for "Miss Photogenic" was determined by this young lady's simple but flattering hairdo and lovely smile.

Thank-you again for asking us.....

Sincerely,

The page features several abstract geometric elements. In the upper right, a large, dark, curved shape resembling a wing or a sail is positioned. To its left, a cluster of intersecting lines forms a cross-like structure. In the lower left, a dark, curved shape is partially visible. The word "SPORTS" is centered in the lower half of the page.

We're happy to have Coach Shell to travel the Athletic road with the students and fans
of the Pell High Panthers!

Welcome, Coach Shell!

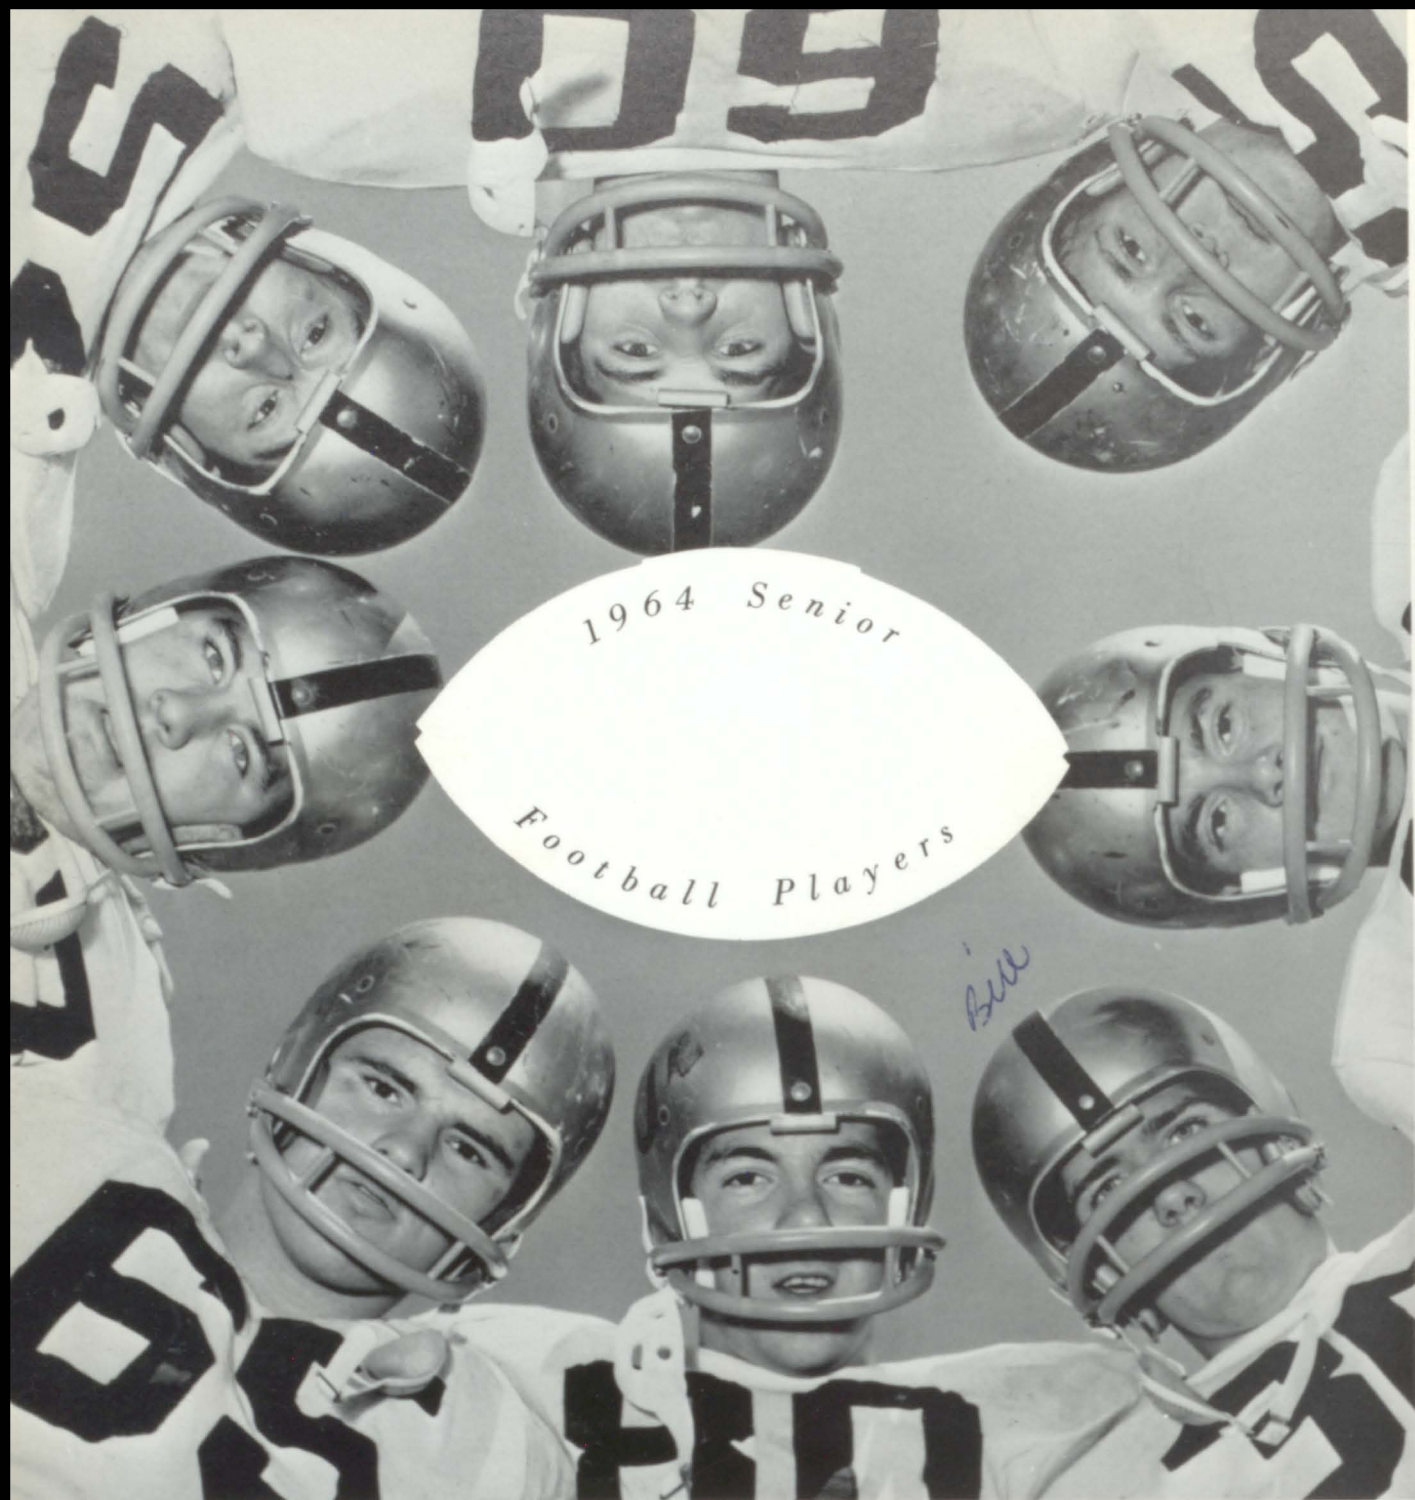

1964 Panthers

The 1964 Panthers began and ended the season with exciting victories. In between were some defeats, but the spirit of the squad, the coaches, and the student body remained high. The school is extremely proud of the effort, sportsmanship, and determination with which these boys represented Pell High.

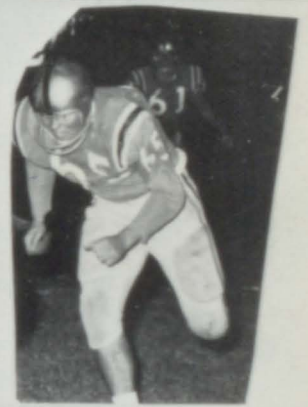

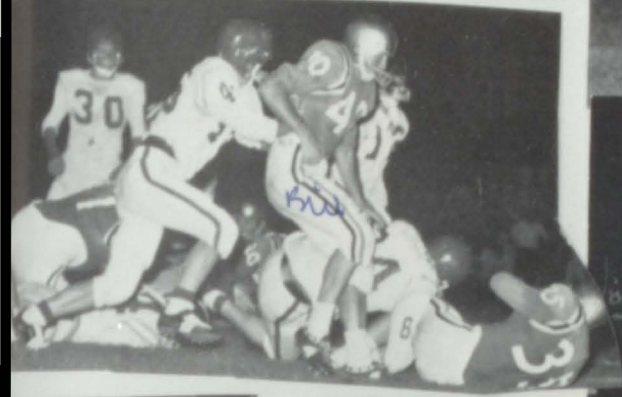

CO-CAPTAINS

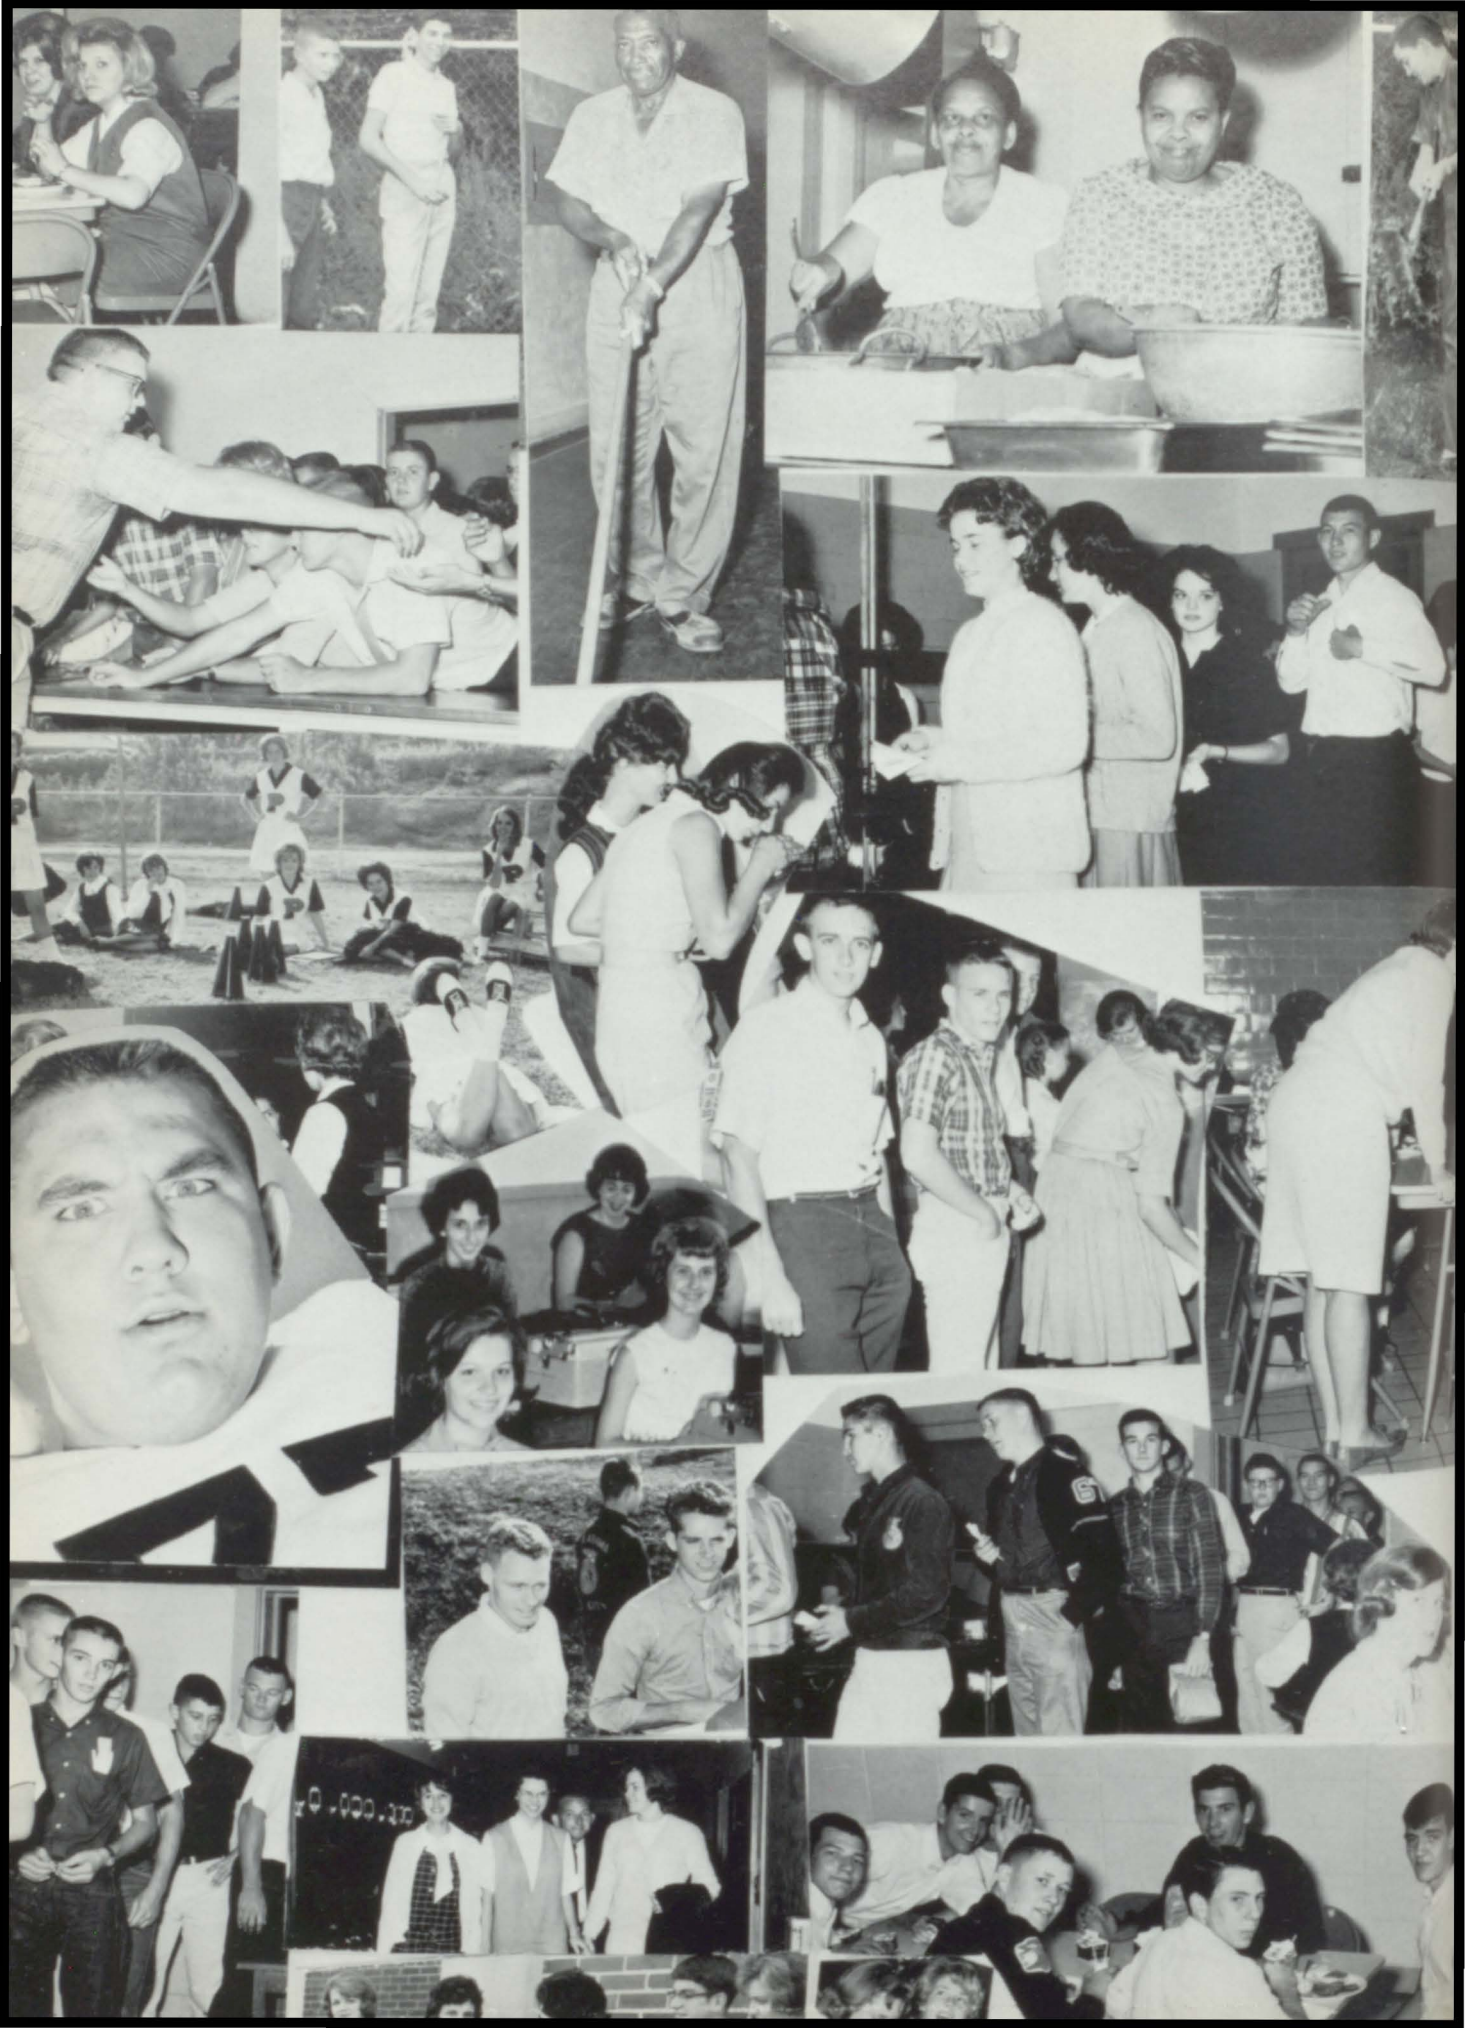

Jim Deane and Gerald Gossett

Jimmy Reece, Leigh Gray, Herman Isbell, Gerald Gossett, Frank Davis, Randy Banks, George Franklin, Bill Gray.

These senior football players will be missed next year, but, as they go forward to college and other careers, we wish for them the very best of everything. May they carry the same spirit of fair play in other walks of life as they did on the football field.

The page features a minimalist, abstract design. At the top, a large, solid black arrow points downwards and to the right. Below it, a series of thin black lines form a rectangular frame that is slightly tilted. The word "ADVERTISERS" is printed in a bold, black, sans-serif font within this frame, slanted to match the frame's angle. In the lower half of the page, there are several more geometric elements: a large, thin-lined arrow pointing upwards and to the right; a complex arrangement of intersecting thin lines forming a star-like or 'X' shape; and another solid black arrow pointing downwards and to the right, similar to the one at the top. The background is a light, off-white color with some faint, ghostly impressions of text or graphics, possibly from the reverse side of the paper.

At Work With The Spotlight Staff

THREE BUSY PEOPLE

Sponsoring a school newspaper brings more headaches than praise; yet Mrs. Harris is always ready to aid discouraged editors and to smoothe over rough spots. Her appreciation is extended to Mrs. Harris for her extra work in helping the students to issue many joyable copies of The Spotlight.

Report cards...transcripts...tests....phone calls...letters....lunchroom change...lockers...supplies...name it! And Miss Rich is capably involved in providing thorough friendly service to both students and to teachers. Thanks, Miss Rich, for a job well-done and for being so pleasant.

and!" "Stretch!" "Run!" "Dance!" "Yell!".... These are words we hear from vivacious Mrs. Turner as she leads the girls to physical fitness. This energetic, well-liked teacher also sponsors the cheerleaders. To Mrs. Turner we say, "Thanks!" "Bravo!" "Yes!" for bringing activity into our lives and for staying youthful, gay, and happy and for making us feel that way, too!
