Good morning yesterday

Wake up
time has slipped away,

And suddenly it's hard to find the memories you left behind,

Remember,

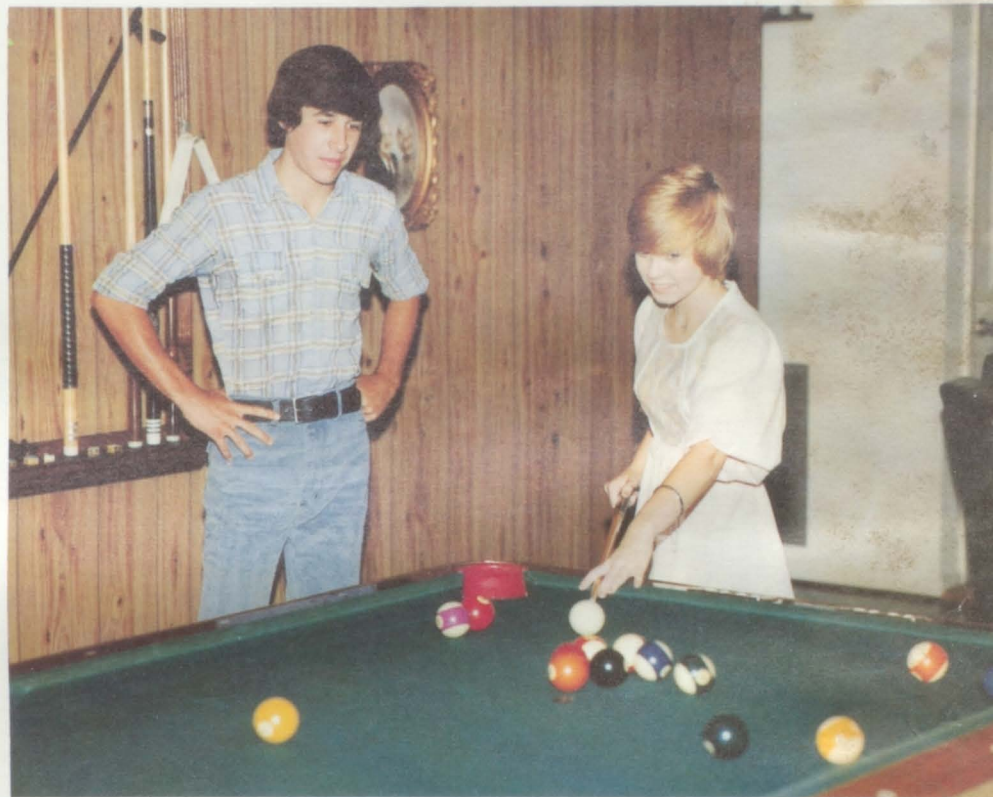

*Do you remember
the laughter and the tears,*

The shadows, of misty yesteryears?

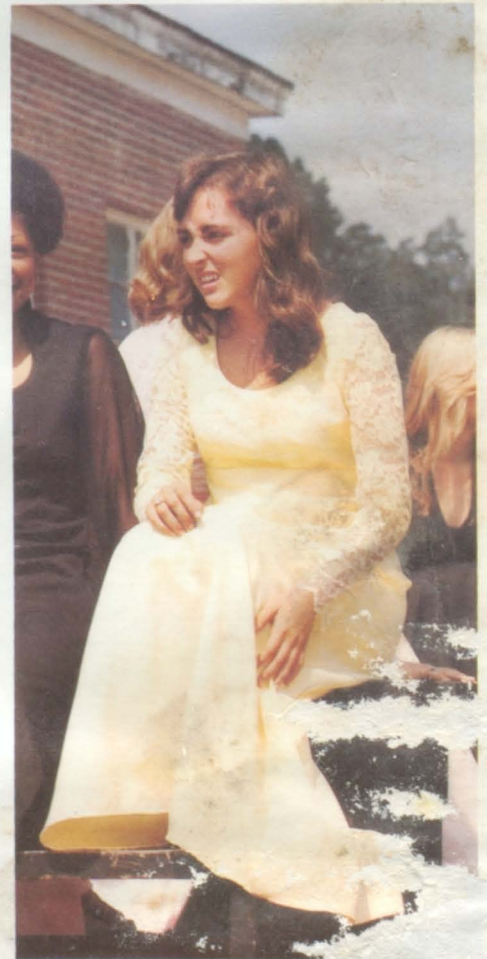

The good times and the bad you've seen

*And all the others in between,
remember.*

Do you remember

The times of your life?

Reach back for the joy and the sorrow put them away in your mind,

For mem'ries are time that you borrow to spend when you get to tomorrow.

Here comes the setting sun

*The seasons are passing one by one,
So gather moments while you may,*

*Collect the dreams you dream today,
remember.
Will you remember the times of your life?*

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

The teacher - or the administrator - can be an important attachment in the interchanging, interlinking web of a student's life. Through wisdom and experience with the knowledge of motivating and encouraging a student to be absorbed by and involved in the web of society, a teacher is privileged to help the spinner of life learn to create and contribute as an anchor of his world.

Fill each minute with sixty seconds worth of distance run.
- Mr. Bryant

Do your best at anything you attempt; never be satisfied with doing less than you are capable of doing.
- Mr. McHugh

To thine own self be true.
- Mrs. Williamson

Never criticize others; you may someday wake up in the same situation they're in.

Every person, especially the one who is educated, should develop meaningful interests in order to prevent boredom from within. Then, hopefully, he can answer Thornton Wilder's question (OUR TOWN), "Do any human beings ever realize life while they live it - (to be so very wonderful!) - every, every minute?" with an emphatic and enthusiastic, "YES, I DO!"

Remember three things: That we, here at your Alma Mater, love you and care about you wherever you go; To live by the Golden Rule; and That the God above is your God, to guide in all situations.

- Mr. Harris

Don't take defeat so easily nor develop an attitude of doing just enough to get by; the only way to have success is through practice and hard work.

- Mrs. Turner

I am no longer a child, but not quite a man.
I begin to rouse from the ebon sleep of childhood,
To finally waken, finally stand with eyes upright,
In the sunlight of the chill, bright dawning of adulthood.
I see the road ahead; I see the road behind; The road ahead ascends a hill and there are sharp stones and thorns along the way,
And I must stop often to rest and think.

My way is not easy; it may not get easier; Those who would lead me from my road wait along the way, to pounce and hold me back from my journey. But my eyes stay on the path; I hear the voice of the Mighty One calling, and I follow the Blessed Sound.
And though I might often stray, He will lead me. And when I come to the last steps of my road, I will stand and gaze often along its length - Knowing I have taken the right path.

Mirror, mirror, on the wall, Am I a graduate after all? Am I dreaming? Is this a joke? Have I actually survived through "Sir (?) Scott" and "Economics Bryant" and through all those term papers, critical analyses, book reports, tax forms, speeches, and PINK slips? How I barely got by!! Then there were the pep rallies, homecoming parades, off-campus dances, football games, and just riding around the DQ . . . and oh, those times of falling in love with love! What time is it? Only a few more minutes? Am I actually dressed in graduation cap and gown? Have these twelve years really come to an end? They HAVE? And now that they've ended, do I really want them to? I wish I could live them over again. But I can't. Well, World, Here I come - Ready or not, cause I'm a PCHS Graduate!

In the middle - That's me! Too young or too old - never just right! Got my driver's license, though, and passed Driver Ed - But my insurance's still high as a kite - But I don't have to double date anymore just to have a way to go! . . . And yeah, man . . . I ordered that ring! Wonder when it'll be on my finger? . . . And I DID get to play in three football games and made the baseball team - At least, I didn't warm the bench all year . . . Made Beta Club, too . . . But, oh, that initiation, having to push a wet noodle across the floor by my nose . . . But this year wasn't as bad as last year - That Sophomore year was the worst of all! . . . And Now, MY year is just around the corner, when OUR class will be "Top Dog," not too young, or too old, but JUST RIGHT . . . Class of '78? . . . We'll be the ones they'll all appreciate!

Time to get serious, girl! Your Junior year, with the immediate future prominent in your mind! Yes, the hopes of graduation - a milestone which has been before me all my life, looms just one step ahead! Many thoughts, still accompanied by feelings of being "in the middle," ricochet through my mind. I'm still in limbo, on neutral ground, waiting for the chance to be "king/queen" of the mountain . . . I spend days dreaming of future accomplishments, but anxieties and fears of coming face to face with cold reality shakes my daydreams. Ordering of class rings, taking ACT exams, and deciding on a profession - all serious thoughts - begin to take precedence in my thinking . . . Yes, ole girl, it's time to get serious - to begin to take oneself seriously, and while the junior year can be carefree and happy, it is also the time to prepare - to get ready - to continue to dream for that special night, another year away, when that special piece of paper will be gained. Yeah, ole girl, you've come a long way - you've got a long way to go!

Me! . . . A high school sophomore! Yeah, I'm startin' all over again! Like I'm in FIRST grade, Low man on the totem pole! . . . Wonder if I can find my way 'round and learn those teachers' names? . . . All that pushin' and shoving' in the halls'll be rough, too - everyone bigger than me!
Figured out a way to remember my locker combination - Wrote the combination on all my books - And like a dumb kid, locked my books in the locker!
Those long tests sophomores have to take, and PE? Yeah, I can pass THAT - but I don't know about chemistry 'n physics . . . What if I don't make the football team? I can run fast, and throw some, but blockin' and tacklin'? I AM a little small, yet; but I'll grow. In more ways than one. Guess that's what this sophomore year's all about, time for me to really get started at growin' and standin' on my own feet. So, look out, you juniors and seniors, I'll grow and mature . . . So, this could be my very BEST year at dear ole PCHS.

Bells ring . . . and ring . . . and ring! Seniors of '77 and '78 rush past as I hurry and struggle to go the other way, making a grand entrance into the wrong room! . . . Books, heavy enough to stagger a packhorse . . . constant tons of homework,

Study, Study! . . . Oh, Sophomore, the need of a strong mind to carry the burden of themes and tests . . . Teased by everyone from principal to shortest junior . . . wild drives through ditches and redlights in Drivers Ed . . . a collection of pink slips sufficient to paper my bedroom walls . . . inexperienced lungs shouting, but united, to win the spirit award . . . hopes of having the glory of a cheerleader, homecoming queen, or whatever . . . state tournaments . . . trophies . . . awards . . . all hopes and wishes. Bells ring, and ring, and with each ring comes the promise of tomorrow. Life is just around the corner!

SUMMER, '76

Attended the International Theatre Arts Conference in Muncie, Indiana; taught four workshops in Scenic Design.

DECEMBER, '76

Taught two workshops on the art of stage violence at the Alabama State Thespian Convention, Birmingham Southern College.

Hosted the workshop and play festival of the Alabama Speech and Theatre Association, Talladega. Mr. Morrison was Chairman of District V Alabama Speech and Theatre Association this year.

Panther Thespians also worked closely with the Pell City Community Players this season. The Players entered the Alabama Theatre League Festival with THE FOGHORN by Ray Bradbury. Dale Jolley had the leading role and numerous students assisted in the production. The play won the Alabama Competition and represented Alabama at the Southeastern Theatre Conference, Norfolk, Va., in March, 1977. We were in competition with nine other states and won the coveted "Best Technical Production" award. Ours was the newest and by FAR the YOUNGEST group in competition.

"THE TIMES . . . OF YOUR LIFE"

The "TIMES OF YOUR LIFE" - The Good Times to treasure - The Sad Times to place in proper perspective - The Times in the Future so unpredictable for each individual -

The PELMEL Staff has tried to capture in picture some of the memorable times of the 1976-77 school year. May each of you treasure each memory, and for those which we did not capture in picture, we trust you have them engraved on your heart.
