SCENES FROM THE ROBE

Director Morrison gets ready for fullscale production of THE ROBE . . . an unusual production beginning with the Crucifixion on center stage . . . Realism . . . Pathos . . . Intensity . . . prevalent in every scene.

Demetrius and Marcellus contemplate the Cross.

Below: "The" Salome boasts of winning her wager with Caligula that Marcellus would not recant his belief.

FREEDOM JAM

Young people who travel widely throughout the U.S. sponsored by Bicentennial Committee for Heritage Appreciation -

"Now - Give me that again!"

He's got WHAT in his locker?

This is ONLY the First day of school???

What do I want with these Flowers?

I'll get that roach "YET!"

CAPS — GOWNS — RINGS — AND THINGS

My zipper's caught in my jeans!

They even spelled my name wrong!

But I don't HAVE correct change!

OOPS! She's losing her pants . . . I mean, jeans!!

Not BLANK invitations??

"She's got legs! Our legs fit your legs . . ."

Girl! It's a tie . . . not a noose!!

I wonder what "The Fonze" would do in this situation!

Imagine America without textiles.

They're so much a part of our life that we tend to take them for granted. The textile industry, however, does not take lightly their role in American life. They are continually adding young people to the work force in order to stay new and adapt to a fluid society.

Avondale salutes the textile industry and American Youth. They're working together to stay ahead of your needs.

Quality textiles for over 75 years.

THE TIMES OF YOUR LIFE

Good morning yesterday, You wake up, and time has slipped away, And suddenly it's hard to find The memories you left behind, Remember, Do you remember, The laughter and the tears, The shadows, of misty yesteryears, The good times and the bad you've seen And all the others in between, Remember. Do you remember the times of your life? Reach back for the job and the sorrow, Put them away in your mind, For mem'ries are time that you borrow To spend when you get to tomorrow. Here comes the setting sun, The seasons are passing one by one, So gather moments while you may, Collect the dreams you dream today, Remember.

Will you remember the times of your life?
