The "Now" People

Produced by The PELMEL Staff
School year — 1977-1978

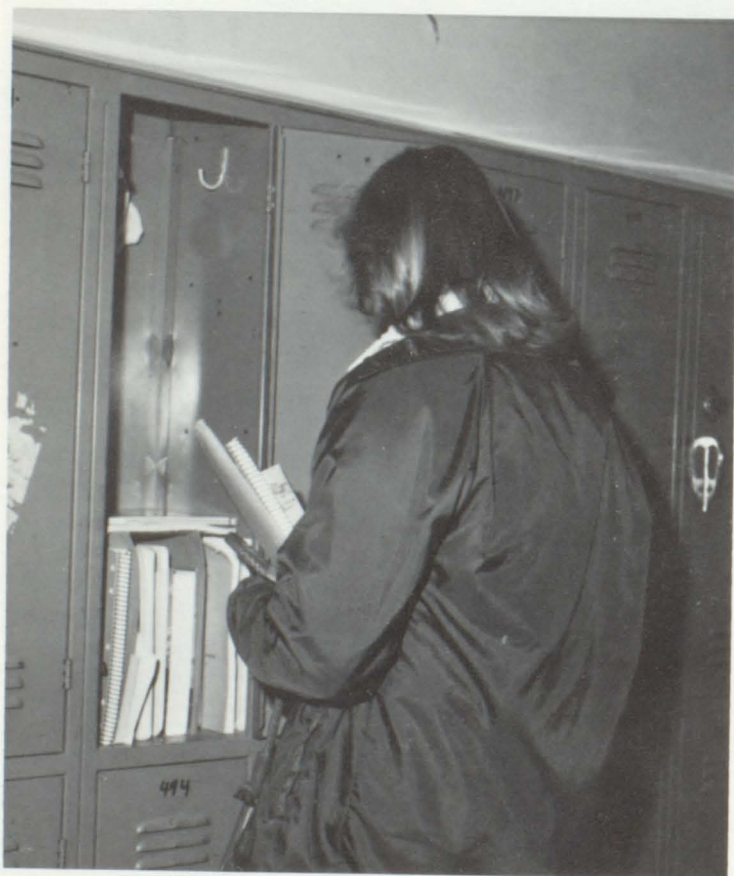

WE, the "NOW" people, work for spending money, practice meditation, cherish childhood memories of barefeet in the sand, and sleep the night away

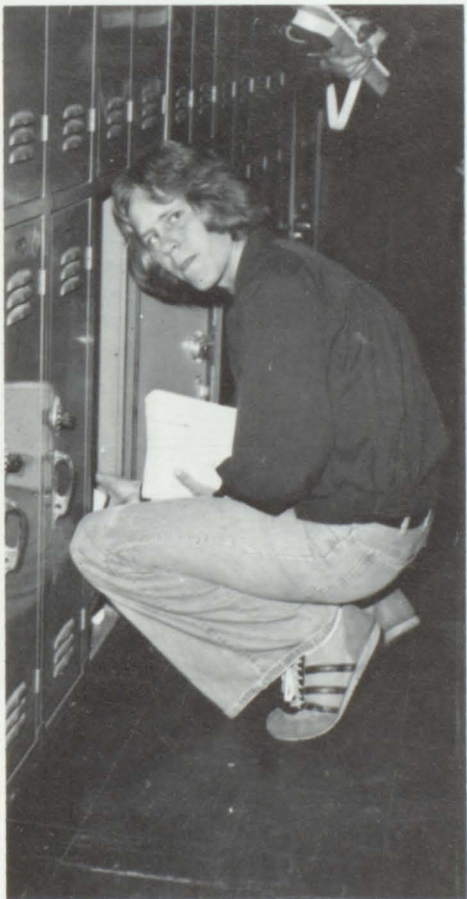

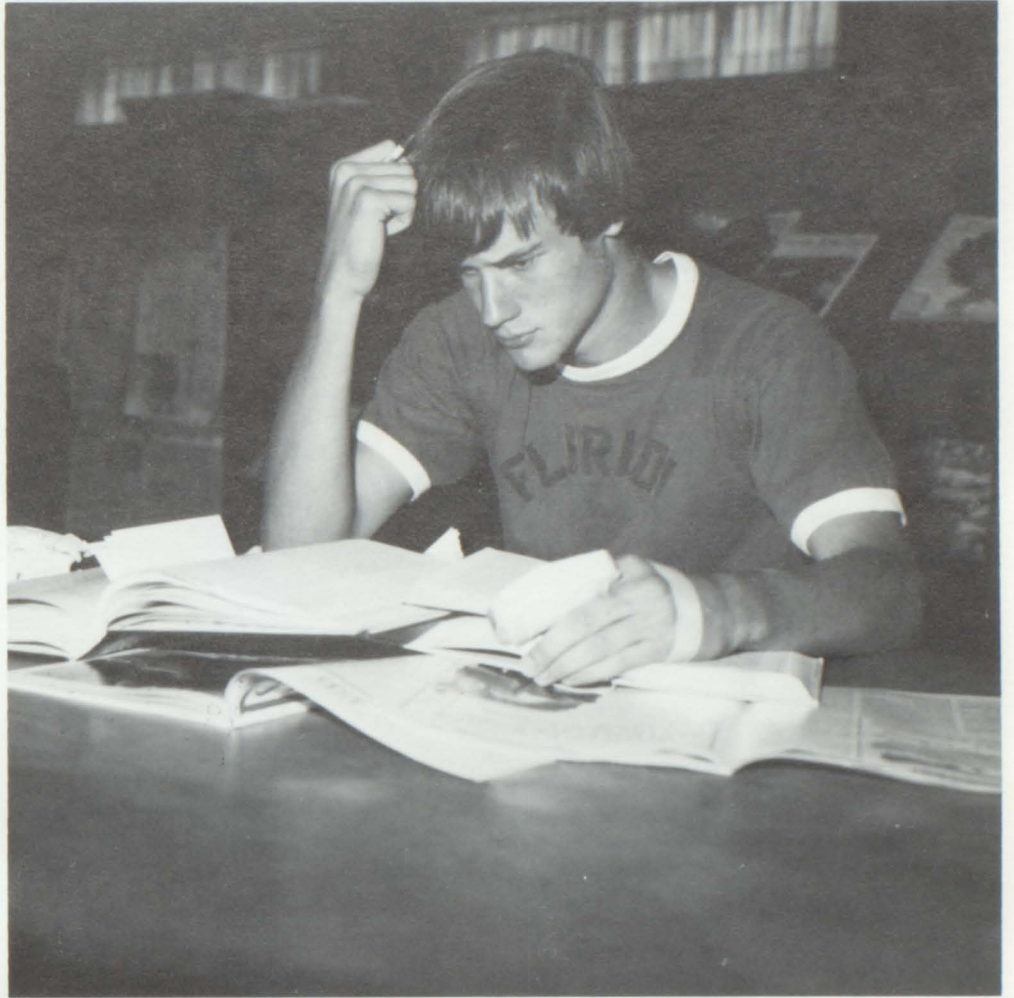

We treasure first friendships of childhood, bask and tan in the rays of the sun, and love the splash of cool water as it caresses our skin . . .

We use creative imaginations, dream our own daydreams
and learn to work together . . .

We watch our leaders for examples,
Yet there are things we must do ALONE — and each must choose his own path for the future.

We are the "NOW" people who speak our own language . . . we express ourselves, whether in a crowd, dancing and singing, or by ourselves, clowning around.

Our diverse personalities gleam as brightly as the sun.

We are gregarious,
and seek the company of friends
in and away from school.

We enjoy being together, to share a laugh,
a tear, a dream — to share the pleasantries
of the day.

We, the "NOW" people, do love our country and school. We express our patriotism and loyalty through sharing victory and loss, cheering and fighting, feeling the sting of discipline, winning, losing, and agonizing . . . and, then, TRYING all over again.

We build character with determination . . . We continue to fight in spirit for a faith that must not be lost.

We will never STAY defeated, nor will we dwell in sadness.

We are the "NOW" people — alone . . . and yet . . . together. We have a need for solitude and quiet times. We eat . . . work . . . and relax together . . . For we are a part of each others' lives.

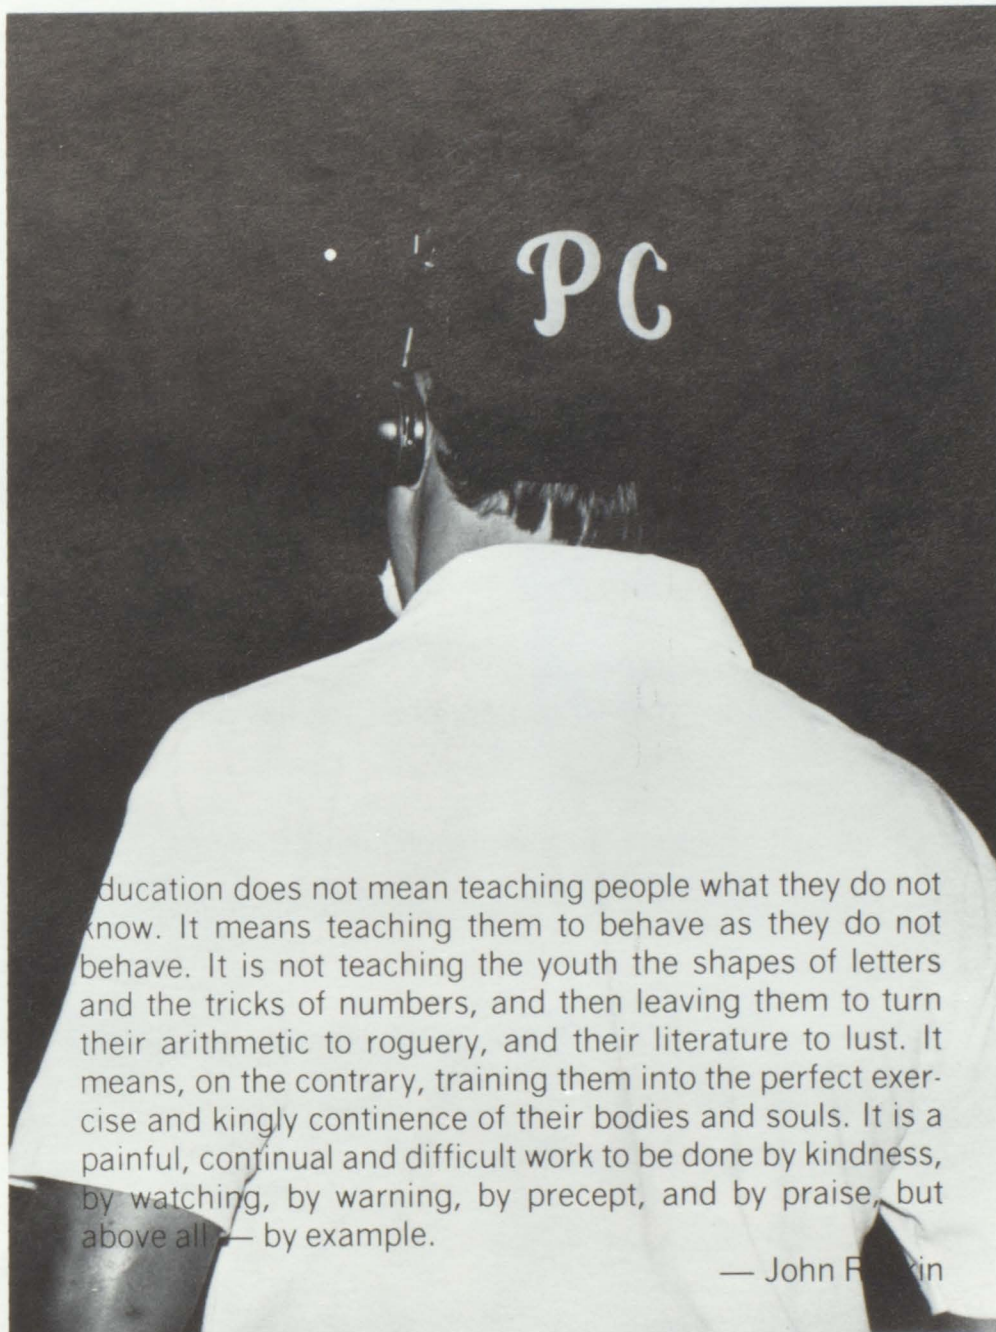

There is something special about the "NOW" people of PCHS — Special because PCHS, our school, and we, those "NOW" people, are special.

Administration, Faculty, Staff

Education does not mean teaching people what they do not know. It means teaching them to behave as they do not behave. It is not teaching the youth the shapes of letters and the tricks of numbers, and then leaving them to turn their arithmetic to roguery, and their literature to lust. It means, on the contrary, training them into the perfect exercise and kingly continence of their bodies and souls. It is a painful, continual and difficult work to be done by kindness, by watching, by warning, by precept, and by praise, but above all — by example.

— John F. Kin

Dedication

With respect and admiration we dedicate the 1978 PELMEL to Clarence Columbus Lee, Jr., who retired March 1, 1978, after having been an educator for thirty and one-half years in St. Clair County, teaching for thirty consecutive years at Pell City High School.

Through inspiring and untiring efforts to be of service in education, Mr. Lee was the student's friend, the teacher's counselor, and the administrator's mentor. Well-versed in multi-faceted areas, his enthusiasm for learning was contagious. Teaching cooperatively for a better, more appreciative insight to educating and enlightening learners was a daily goal. As librarian he knew every book in the library, where to find it, how to use it to the best advantage, and how to encourage youth to explore the miracles and wonders of the printed word. As a teacher he brought both professionalism and personalism to any learning situation so that from success or failure in activity a person became a more informed individual. Lives of many students, faculty and school-community leaders have been enriched for having been associated with Mr. Lee.

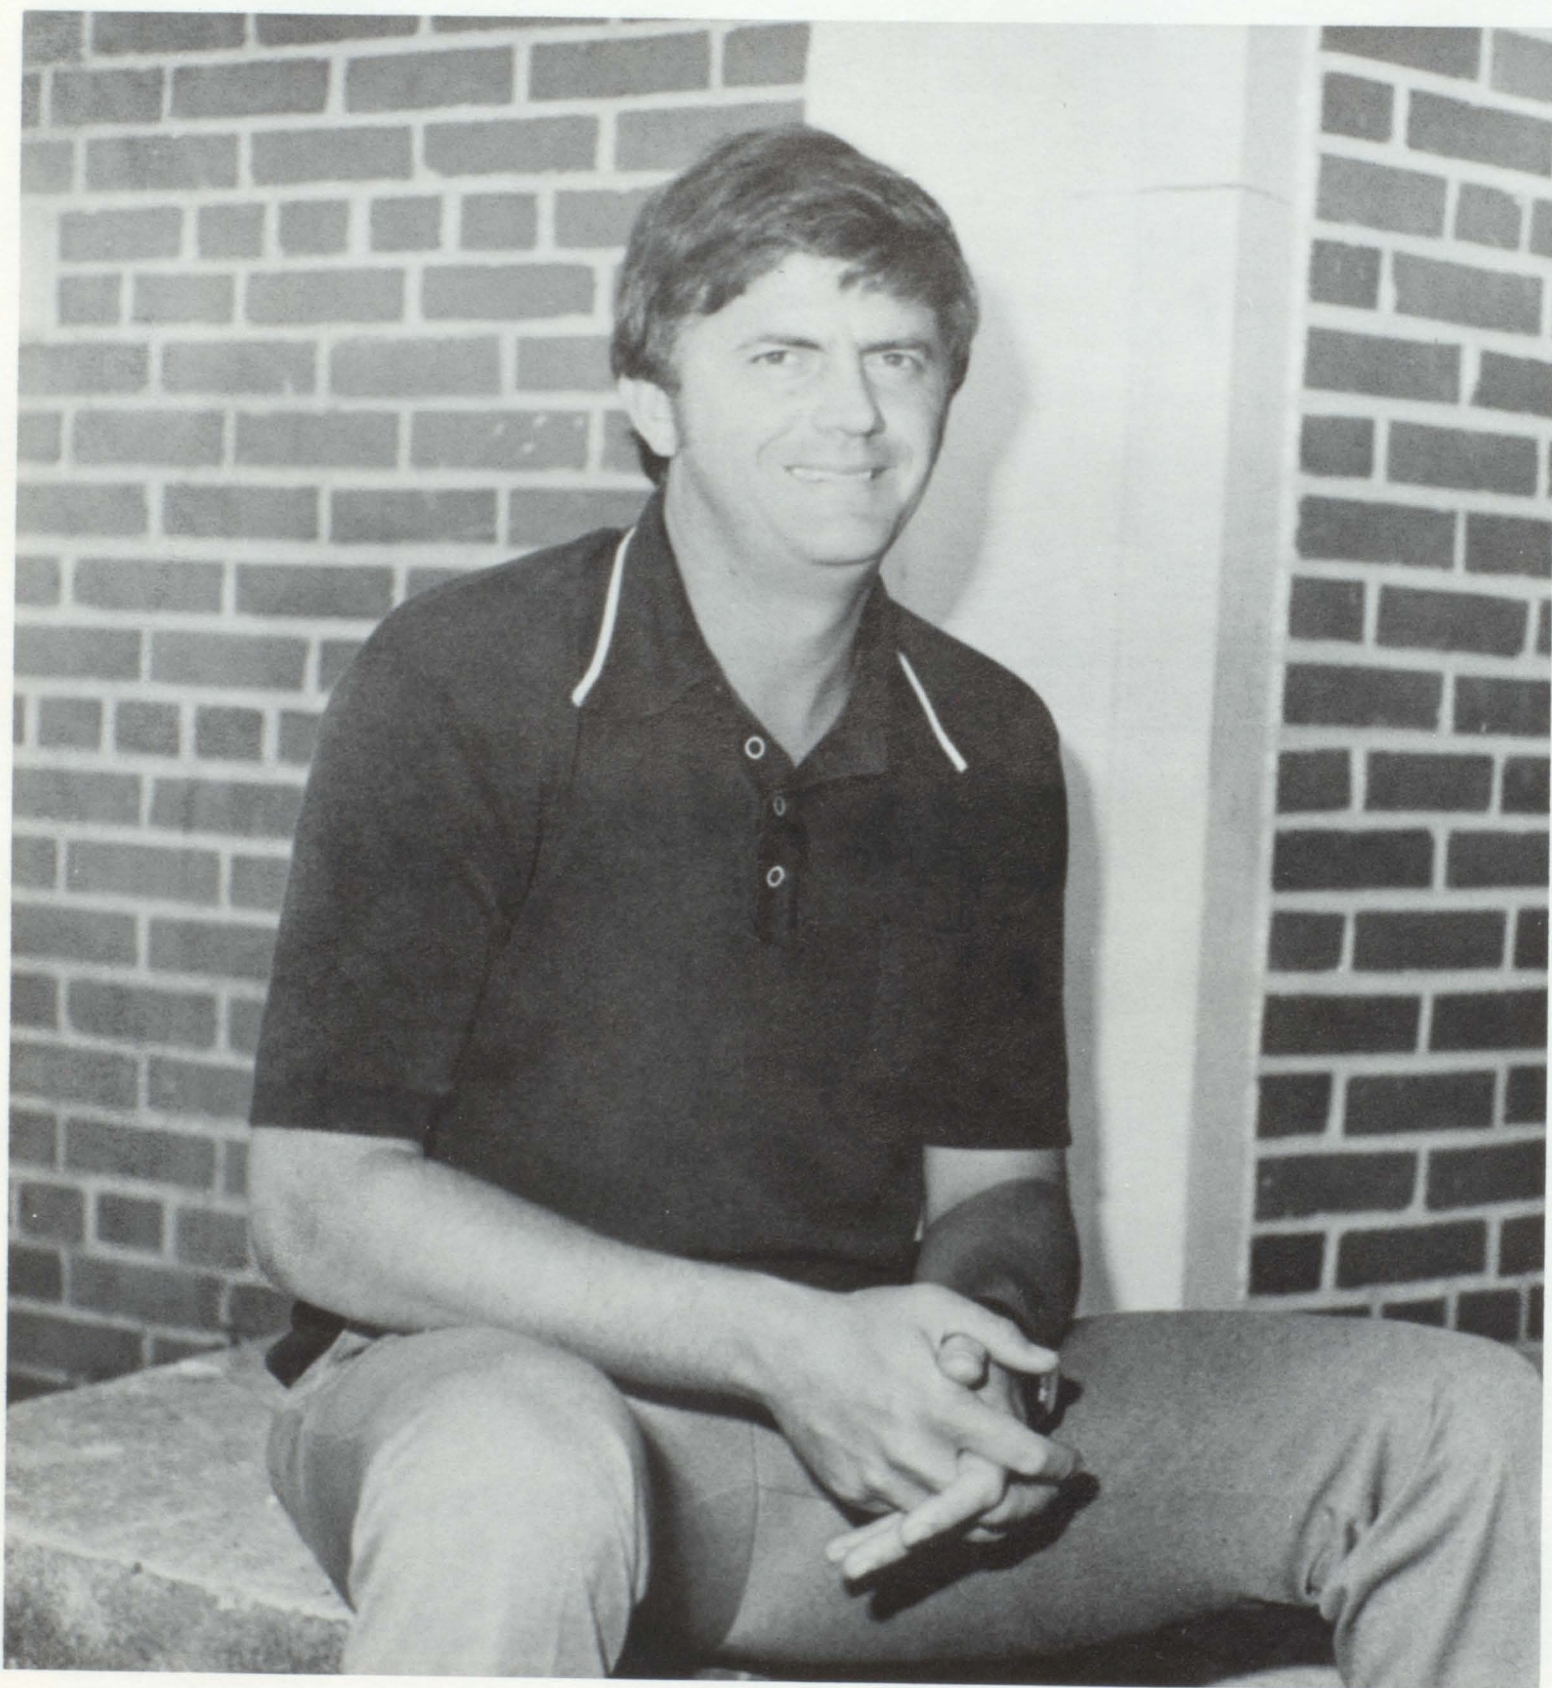

Pell City High School administration, faculty, and students will miss C. C. Lee, but the contributions he made to education, to students and faculty will long remain effective.

This small memento — the dedication of a yearbook — can in no way adequately express gratitude for a lifetime of educational contributions, but we hope Mr. Lee will accept this small token of appreciation in the spirit with which it is given.

THE TEACHER

Lord, who am I to teach the way
To little children day by day,
So prone myself to go astray?

I teach them knowledge, but I know
How faint they flicker and how low
The candles of my knowledge glow.

I teach them power to will and do,
But only now to learn anew
My own great weakness thru and thru.

I teach them love for all mankind
And all God's creatures, but I find
My love comes lagging far behind.

Lord, if their guide I still must be,
Oh, let the little children see
The teacher leaning hard on Thee.

ONLY ONCE

We live but once. The years of childhood, when once past, are past forever. It matters not how ardently we may wish to live them over; it avails us nothing. So it is with the other stages of life. The past is no longer ours. It has gone beyond our reach. What we have made it, it shall remain . . . There it stands, and one day we shall give an account of it. The present moment alone is ours . . . Today is a day which we never had before, which we shall never have again. It rose from the great ocean of eternity, and again sinks into its unfathomable depths.

WHO IS EDUCATED?

Has your education given you sympathy with all good causes?
 Has it made you public spirited?
 Has it made you a brother to the weak?
 Have you learned how to make friends and to keep them?
 Do you know what it is to be a friend yourself?
 Can you look an honest man or a pure woman straight in the eye?
 Do you see anything to love in a little child?
 Can you look out on the world and see anything but dollars and cents?
 Can you look into the sky at night and see beyond the stars?

— ANONYMOUS

Mrs. Wright, a regular sbustitute, served at one time during the '77-'78 school year for six continuous weeks in addition to intermittent days throughout the school year.

REMEMBER —

The value of time.
The success of perseverance.
The pleasure of working.
The dignity of simplicity.
The worth of character.
The power of kindness.
The influence of example.
The obligation of duty.
The wisdom of economy.
The virtue of patience.
The improvement of talent.
The joy of originating.

In Memoriam

YOUNG DEATH

It leaves behind the good and bad
And then again your Mom and Dad.
The friends and all that love you so
Wonder why you must go.

It leaves behind the smiles and tears
And then again the ugly fears
It breaks you free from worry and pain

But still the others feel the same.

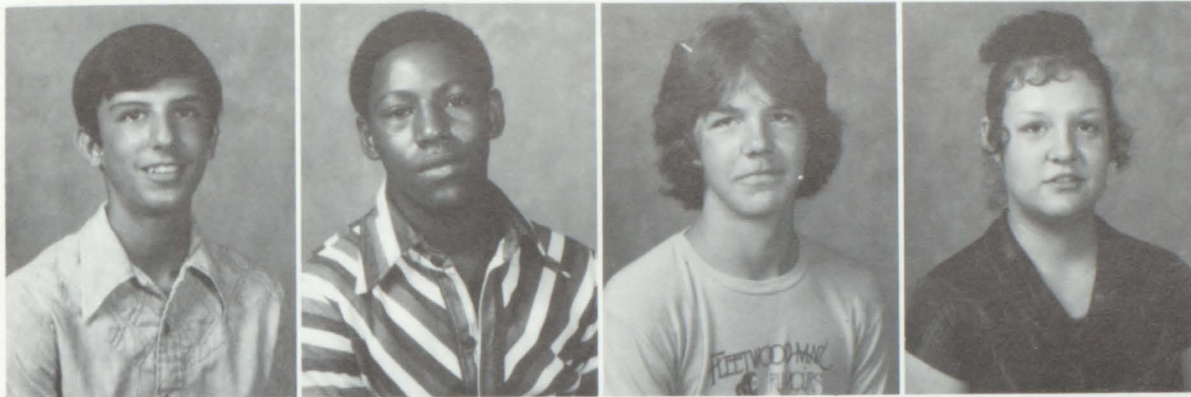

You know not why it happens to you
Could it be a puzzle or clue?
You love your life so very much
But now it's gone with just one touch.

We all will go sometimes, someday

For this is what our maker did say
But why the ones so dear and close
Are the ones that depart the most.

Death will come and warn you not
So please be ready when it knocks
You've had the time for fun and laughter
But what about the "everafter?"

GETTING IT TOGETHER

The "now people" really got it together
At the school of dear ole Pell High
Clubs were formed both left and right
As the year went passing by.

The Student Council started us off
By counting a vote or two,
While the Beta's donated a pulsating spirit
As they pulled the blood drive through.

The Math Department competed in tournaments
Displaying their unmatched skill,
While the Spanish club of PCHS
Went to Mexico to achieve its thrill.

The Art Club made its masterpieces
By drawing and working with clay,
While the FFA learned to farm
And to make repairs each day.

The Spotlight staff worked each week
Preparing a paper to sell,
As the Annual staff of PCHS
Created the "78" PELMEL.

The Key Club Boys of 78
Were the biggest fund-raisers around,
As the Drama Department raised the curtain
On "Wizard of Oz" and "Our Town."

The Future Homemakers of America
Learned how to sew and to cook,
While the CIA delivered each morning
A message from God's Great Book.

Learning how to teach at Pell City High
Were the members of the FTA,
While the Pell City High School Band of Gold
Rehearsed new songs to play.

The tennis, golf, and baseball teams
Revealed their talented skills,
While the cheerleaders and the football team
Practiced for Friday night thrills.

"78" is over now,
Each club's task is solved,
For the "now people" got it together,
They enjoyed — they all got involved!

This Is Our Sport

The night started after a small crowd of students left the D.Q. to watch the most important game of the season — HOMECOMING — against the Shelby County Wildcats. The stadium was soon the scene of hundreds of enthusiastic spectators as the Panthers kicked off to the Wildcats. After a long drive to the Wildcat eleven-yard line, a pass from Mann to Watson provided the score of 6-0.

But the Panthers fell behind in the second period when the Wildcats scored two T.D.'s and a conversion. The half ended with the score 13-6 in favor of the Wildcats.

The second half started with a fumble recovery by Panther team member Cosper. After another drive to the 16, a pass from Mann to Dobbs predicted the victorious score of 14-13. Twenty tense minutes later the horn sounded to prove the score a reality — and the night faded into oblivion in everything except for the minds of the Panther fans.

THIS IS OUR SPORT! THIS IS FOOTBALL!
