Beach Bash 1987

The French Club membership includes all students enrolled in French classes during the year and students who have previously studied the language. During this year, the club participated in many cultural, educational and extra curricular activities. During the fall, a float was entered in the homecoming parade and the classes attended an exhibition of a famous collection of French paintings, the Chrysler Exhibit, at the Birmingham Museum of Art. Those attending also lunched on French cuisine in the Critics Room at the Museum.

During the winter, students attended a French play, "The Doctor In spite of Himself" at Ramsey High in Birmingham. Also at this time plans were made for an AEA trip to French speaking Montreal and Quebec. A total of 37 students and chaperones went on this exciting trip.

The main spring activity was Beach Bash '87, a dance featuring a beach theme, Beach Boys music, and a limbo contest. The money raised from this project was used for the French Club's annual scholarship for a graduating senior.

New Kid in Town

Back in the spring, the Panther team gained a new member. When Coach Darnell decided not to return for another season, Mike Tice from Phil Campbell High School came to the rescue. Coach Tice has been a football coach for the past fourteen years. A major influence in his decision to come to Pell City was that it is a nice and friendly community with plenty of activities for young people. He attended Hamilton High School where he played 3 years of football, basketball, baseball, and track. He graduated from the University of South Alabama where he played baseball. Coach Tice is married to Sandy Rasberry and has three children, Tonya, Amanda, and Chad. The Pelmer would like to wish all the luck to Coach Tice and the '87 football team.

A perfect ending for a perfect night

Homecoming 1987

On October 17, excitement crept upon our town. It was Homecoming! The very word brought back memories of beautiful queens and momentous victories.

The game was set to start at 7:30. However, the festivities had been going on for the past week. By 6:30, the stadium had begun to fill up; the team was practicing on the field; cheerleaders were putting up signs and the elected beauties were getting nervous.

Around 7:00, the band went on the field. The winners from each class walked across the field as they were announced amid cheers from the crowd. As they left, the football team came out of the locker room, and the game was set to begin.

At halftime the mighty Panthers were running away with the game, as they led 21-0. This couldn't have been a more perfect set-up for the halftime festivities. The PCHS marching band again took the field and played the great medley of songs that made up their show. Finally, the moment everyone had been waiting for was at hand. The four seniors walked out on the field. Miss Leigh Ann Harrod was announced Homecoming Queen of 1986.

The night ended with the total wipe out of Banks 34-12. There couldn't have been a more beautiful queen on a more perfect night that was Homecoming 1986.

The Final Countdown To Kickoff

Homecoming week was off with a bang. Every class formed a committee and attempted to construct a float and was praying to win the Panthers competition. Since the Jets of Banks, everyone used the Jets as their theme. Working on the floats proved to be the most fun of all, even though more playing than working was done in most cases. But the real task came when each class had to get their float from the building spot to the front of the school. Everyone in town knew we had gone through because there were bits and pieces of crepe paper scattered from Hospital Drive to the Sod Farm and everywhere in between. When everyone arrived at the school, last minute touchups were made and Coach Pate, with four wheeler, on hand (or whatever the case may be) put everyone in order to make our debut.

The Homecoming Court in all their sparkling and ruffled dresses made their way to the float that the Student Council had constructed. Many of the clubs had also made floats to be in the parade and be in a separate category of competition. It all proved to be a very fun event for everyone involved.

After the game, the Beta Club sponsored the Homecoming Dance at the Civic Center. It was beautifully decorated with black and gold streamers draped across the ceiling. The dance seemed to be a perfect finish to the evening after a great victory and a beautiful court. Homecoming '86 will not be one any of us will soon forget.

Conga: A Night to Remember

The Miss Pell High Pageant of 1987 was a well planned success. The pageant was set to start at 7:00, but friends and relatives began filling up the seats at around 6:00. The contestants had to be ready to go at 6:30. The pageant started off with a production, which included all of the contestants, to the fast paced Conga. Despite being nervous, all the contestants did well and danced their best.

Next, it was time for the contestants of each class to come out individually and show the judges their poise and beauty. The freshman class came first, followed by the sophomores. After these classes went, there was a fifteen minute intermission during which an array of entertainment kept the crowd in awe. Juniors and Seniors then took their time onstage to complete the judging.

Following another intermission, the scoring was over and the beauties were ready to be announced. First, the Miss Congenialities were announced — LaTonya Brand and Melanie DeMent. They then called out the winners from each class, and there were even two ties. Finally the moment everyone had been waiting for was there. And the winner was ... Miss Shana Clements.

Shana Clements was crowned Miss Pell High 1987.

Valedictorian

The 1986-1987 Valedictorian was Nannette Smith. She achieved this position after having a 97.14 grade point average. Nannette is the seventeen year old daughter of S. M. and Vicki Smith. She participated in various clubs, including: Beta Club, Science Club, Mu Alpha Theta, Key Club, Pep Club, and Quill and Scroll. Nannette was assistant editor of Pelmel and a two-year varsity cheerleader. She was in Who's Who Among American High School Students. Her future plans are to attend The University of Alabama in the fall on the Alumni Leadership Scholarship.

Miss Nannette Smith

Miss Mary Milam

For the first year, several advanced courses were added to the college prep curriculum which were elective. Our Salutatorian, Mary Milam, challenged herself and went over and beyond what was required and still maintained a 97.07 grade point average. We are proud that Mary's efforts did not go totally unnoticed. She is the eighteen year old daughter of Steve and Emma Milam. Mary was a prominent member of the Beta Club, President's Club, Music Club, and Mu Alpha Theta. She has held offices such as; Vice President of Student Council, President of the Sophomore class, Vice President of Senior Class and President of the Band. Mary was a majorette two years in a row and became field conductor her senior year. Such honors as: Who's Who Among American High School Students, Academic All American, National Merit Awards in English, Biology and History, and Outstanding Senator at Birmingham Southern Model Senate, were bestowed upon Mary. Mary's dedication was evidenced by her attendance at the Capstone Summer Honors Program at the University of Alabama, where she plans to attend college.

Behind Closed Doors

For the Seniors, the lock-in which was held on Friday the 13th, of February, was a total success. Watching movies was one of the events that the seniors did that evening. Also, many odd and unusual games were played throughout the night, some of which were the chariot race and knock the orange. Entertainment was provided by Tom Hutchins, youth director of the First Baptist Church. Food was definitely a major concern; the seniors were able to purchase goodies from a concession stand. After watching several movies, the seniors became sleepy so the place was picked up by everyone participating in volleyball and basketball games while listening to music.

The group then retired to their sleeping bags to watch movies. The seniors were able to leave at 6:00. It was a fun-filled night that the seniors will never forget.

Junior Class has Fashion Show

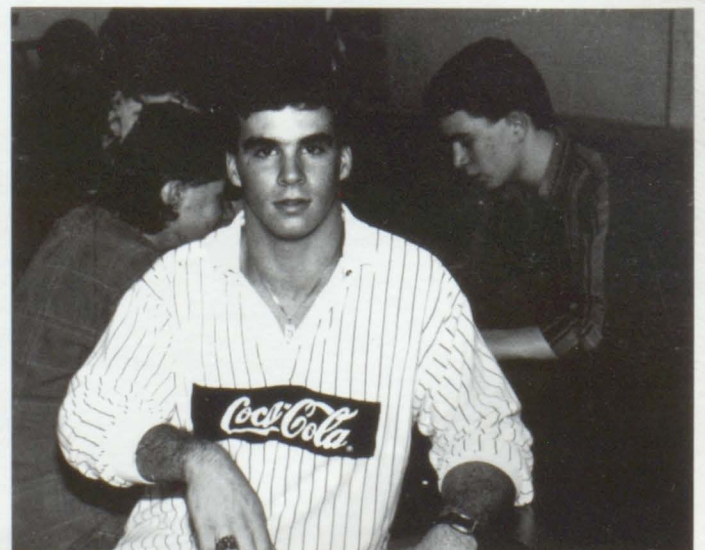

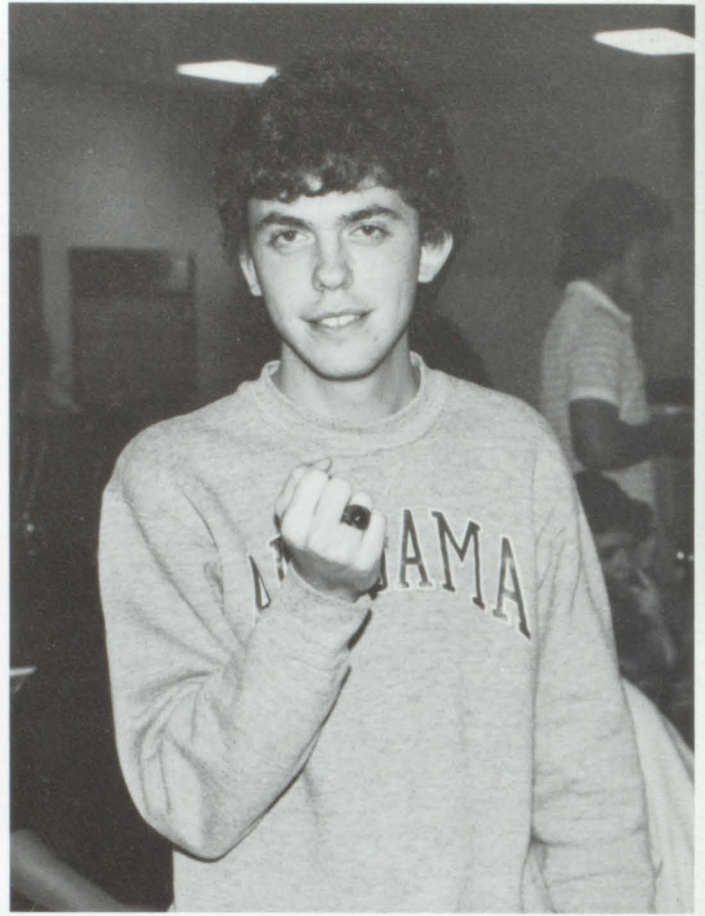

As prom season approached, the students at PCHS were able to attend a fashion show sponsored by the Junior Class. Several of the guys and gals at school were chosen to model dresses and tuxedos from the Pageant Place and the Tux Shop. The show was highly entertaining as the models showed off their elegant fashions and danced to the '60's melodies. After viewing the fashions many students were more aware of what they wanted to wear to the upcoming prom.

“A Looking Glass Murder”

The junior class sponsored a play to raise money for the Junior-Senior prom. There were nine participants willing to overcome the fear of acting on stage: David Channel, Dana Forman, Ann Bannister, Patsy Long, Melissa Thomason, Beth Ann Hriber, Kathy Hand, Jason Pate, and Cynthia Gunnels. They decided to act out, “A Looking Glass Murder,” which was written by Edgar Allan Poe. The play was enjoyed by everyone, probably because of the many hours the members put into it. It also raised over $600.00 for the Junior-Senior Prom.

This could be the night to remember

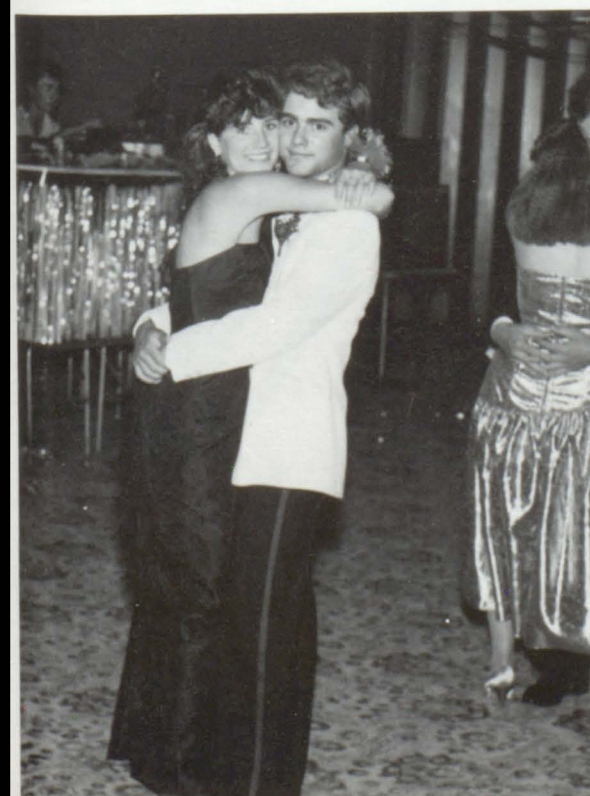

The 1987 Junior Senior Prom was held on May 16, 1987. The event took place at the Birmingham Hyatt, a first for our proms. The junior class did a tremendous job decorating the room and preparing the food. The DJ was from Moody and provided everyone with the type of music to make the night complete. Since the prom didn't start until 8:00, many people took advantage of the various restaurants Birmingham had to offer before the dancing started.

Around 10:00 the King and Queen, Teshia Sobolowski and Alan Luker, and Prince and Princess, Christy Green and Bubba Roberts were announced while the DJ played "This Could Be the Night," theme song and theme of the prom.

The '87 prom was definitely a "night to remember" in more ways than one for everyone attending. Thanks, Juniors, for making it that way.

CHAPTER VICTAR & THE PAGE

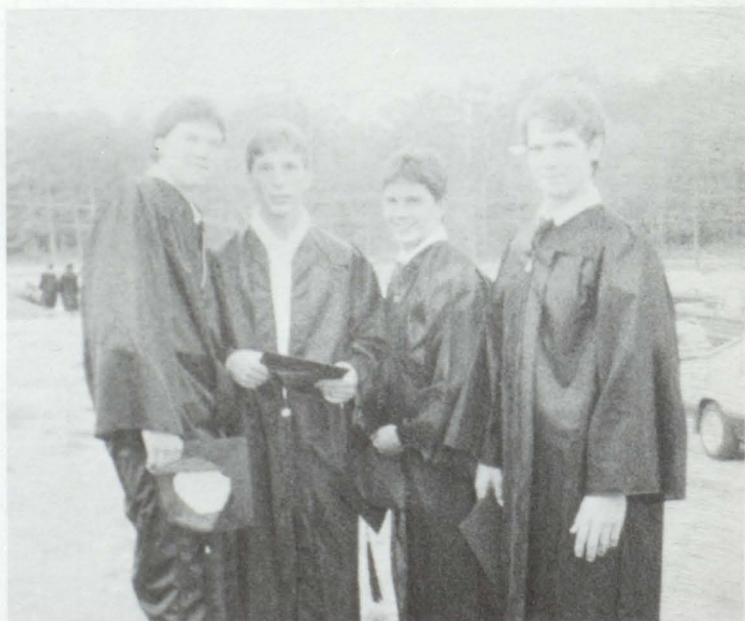

Graduation!

School Day Memories

As we reach out our hand
The diploma we grasp,
While we think of the memories
Of the years in the past.
Tears fill our eyes
Because it's all gone,
We're starting a new life,
We have to move on.
We hope friends will keep in touch
As the years pass us by,
Although it hurts inside
We'll try not to cry
We think of kindergarten
And our first day,
Now we've reached the end
We are going away.
How do you say good-bye
To friends who mean so much?
Will there be time
To sincerely keep in touch?
You'll always have the memories
Of your school years from day one,
Don't think of school as ending —
Think a new life has begun.

Cindy Kichline
