HOMECOMING QUEEN: MEREDITH EISENHARDT

The night could not have been any clearer for Homecoming 1987. As usual the whole town turned out to support our Panthers and to witness the half-time events. After the band delivered another spectacular performance, bringing the crowd to their feet, the Homecoming Court lined up on the field. Everyone was filled with anticipation as the Homecoming Queen for 1987 was announced . . . Miss Meredith Eisenhardt. Everyone was amused as Meredith stared in disbelief while being crowned by our 1986 Homecoming Queen; Miss Leigh Ann Harrod. It was an enjoyable night for everyone, capped off by a devastating win over the Pinson Valley Indians.

The Senior favorites include Kristi Mobley, Noel Lee, Meredith Eisenhardt, and Christy Green. They all were escorted by their fathers.

HOMECOMING WEEK

Homecoming week was full of excitement! It was a busy week for us all. During the week there were dress up days to which were: Black and Gold Day, 50's Day, Bad to the Bone Day, Western Day, and Military Day. All students were encouraged to dress up and show their school spirit. All classes worked hard on their floats, each float was judged as follows: First place, Juniors; Second Place, Sophomores; Third place, Freshmen; and of course the Seniors were last! (They didn't want to break their four year record of losing!) On the Thursday night before the game, everyone turned out for the great Bonfire, which was sponsored by I-95. Friday afternoon, school let out early and everyone got ready for the parade. The parade was full of decorated cars, floats, cheerleaders and football players, bands, sweethearts, and the Homecoming court. The big night finally arrived and it was time for the game. The game was a tremendous victory against the Pinson Valley Indians with a score of 58-6. The night was topped off with the Homecoming Dance which was enjoyed by all. Homecoming 87, a Homecoming to Remember!

HEY BAND ... YEAH? ...

The Pell City High School Band of Gold has continued to grow in size over the past few years. This past year when the band stepped onto the field 200 strong, they sent chills all over the large crowds of Panther supporters. The band not only played at the Pell City football games but also at pep rallies, parades, and other school and community functions. The band show this year consisted of "Salute to the Olympians," Drum Break "Wipe Out," "Bugle Call Rag," and the ever-popular "Shine Down." In the fall, the band held it's annual band festival in which 26 bands competed for awards. In May, the band traveled to Walt Disney World where they were the exhibition band in the Magic Music Days Competition. Having won the Competition last year, the trip was all expenses paid. The band had a wonderful year and we are sure the 88-89 school year will have the band "on the attack and jamming back" with Panther Pride!

P.C.H.S. MAJORETTES:

When you see the band in one of their fantastic performances, one of the first things you notice is the majorettes. For the past two years, we have had the same six girls out there doing their thing. When you see them, do not think it comes naturally. They have survived through summer practices with the band, night practices, and especially the twirl (and eat) practices till dawn. But all this hard work has paid off. They have performed at numerous football games, ("Is there lipstick on my teeth?!" ) Walt Disney World, and especially all the big competitions. Throughout their two year majorette career they have scored no less than perfect #1 for superior in all of their competitions. It has been a truly successful two years for our PCHS majorettes.

MISS PELL HIGH: JULIE WALSH

The Miss Pell High Pageant of 1988 was a real surfing success. Despite minimal practice time and nervousness, the tide rolled in as the junior and senior contestants "wiped out" their opening number. The judging started and the freshman contestants, followed by the sophomores, strolled one by one out onto the stage showing their poise and beauty.

During the intermission, special entertainment was provided by the school's own choral department. After the intermission the juniors displayed their beauty followed by the stunningly beautiful seniors whose presence started the real judging of Miss Pell High.

Following another entertaining intermission, the contestants went back on stage and awaited the naming of the class beauties. The announcement started with the naming of Leigh Bryan as Miss Congeniality, followed by the class winners. After waiting patiently the moment arrived when Wade Alverson announced Julie Walsh as Miss Pell High 1988.

STUDENT PRIDE: AWARDS DAY

THE ANNUAL BAND BANQUET

This year's Band Banquet again found itself a tremendous success.

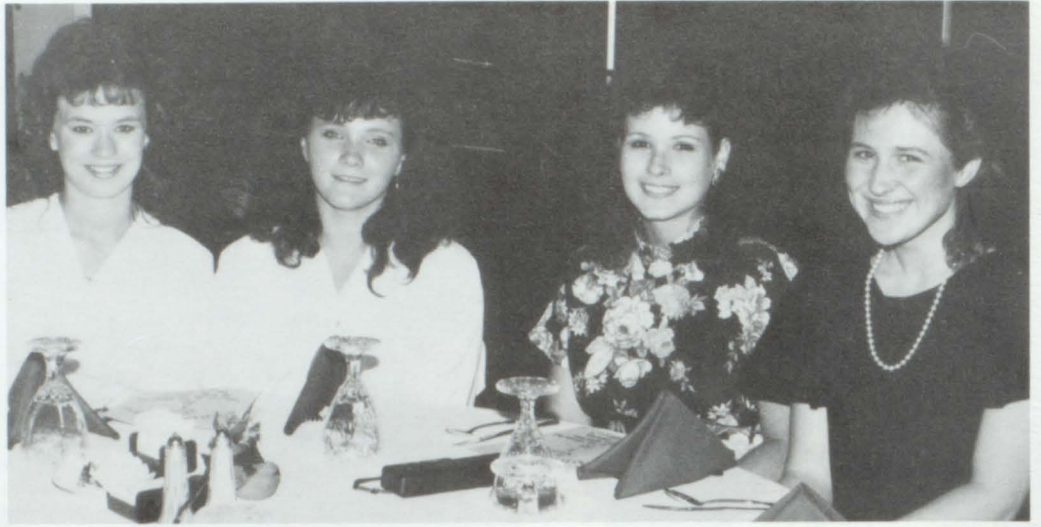

After the few opening words and speeches, everyone enjoyed themselves to Mrs. Spangenberg's, as usual, delicious dinner. Afterwards,

Mr. Diffee presented the most outstanding bandsmen awards to Cynthia Gunnells and Thom Goodwin. Then all the twenty-eight seniors were presented with a plaque and a Wayne Spradley print of the high school. J. J. Dubose then presented Mr. Diffee and Mr. White a gift on behalf of the band. To top the evening off perfectly, we all enjoyed watching Mr. McClurkin's "professional" tape of the band trip to Florida. It was an evening enjoyed by everyone.

THE SENIOR BANQUET

There are many exciting nights that a senior has to look back on in years and remember the fun and togetherness the class shared on special evenings. This year, it appeared, that "certain" special evening was the Senior Banquet. The class officers and advisors worked with much determination and advisors worked with much determination with Mr. Gilbert to a tremendous expense to make this evening a successful and glamorous night. Everyone enjoyed themselves and made a long lasting moment always to remember of the amusing evening. The guest speaker was Mr. Tom Hutchins who delivered a message that there are four "T's" in life: responsibility, credibility, accountability, and reality. Among other speakers, Julie Walsh took a few minutes to stroll down memory lane with a handful of remember whens, and Wade Alverson sang "Friends," which brought tears to everyone's eyes. This year the gift the Senior class left to the school was $750, to do with as they please, presented to Mr. Gilbert by the class president, Darrin DeLoach. Also, we honored Mrs. Amelia Williamson who inspired many of us in our English classes.

SENIOR DAY: One step closer to Graduation

Senior Day was held May 3rd in the high school gym. The seniors were issued their caps and gowns, invitations, and had their pictures made. The Hicktown Exiles played popular music as everyone passed out their name cards and danced. At 1:00 it was time for their steak dinner. Everyone rushed to the lunchroom and enjoyed eating Coach Pate's Steaks which we had been waiting for all these years. It was a special day for the class of 1988 to remember.

WHY CAN'T THIS NIGHT GO ON FOREVER . . .

The 1988 Junior-Senior Prom was held May 21, 1988 at the Birmingham Jefferson Civic Center.

This glamorous event was a tremendous job for the juniors, who decorated all day and then went home to get ready themselves. The theme of the prom was "Why Can't This Night Go On Forever?". It was played as the lead out song for the newly crowned king and queen, Scott Howard and Meredith Eisenhardt. The prince and princess, Tommy Isbell and Gidget Dale also enjoyed the lead out dance. As the evening came to an end everyone wished that that night could go on forever, but realized all good things have to come to an end.
