Celebrating their 65th Valentine's Day together

Herman Dollar never misses an opportunity to show love and affection for his wife, Essie. The Pell City couple will spend a quiet Valentine's Day sharing the traditional box of candy. They will also reminisce over the past 65 years of marriage they have shared since Dec. 24, 1922, when they stood before the minister and vowed their love. Cupid may have difficulties in this day and age, but he was right on target 65 years ago.
