

Hardy A. Corner
he lost the hotel's quarters. Another described in 1903 as located opposite (the South) and was also
of Mrs. Red Henn

YOU'LL LOVE OUR
"BUY-CENTENNIAL" DEALS

The advertisement features a stylized illustration of three figures in historical or patriotic clothing. One figure on the right holds a large American flag on a pole. The other two figures, a man and a woman, are playing large drums. The text 'YOU'LL LOVE OUR "BUY-CENTENNIAL" DEALS' is written in a bold, sans-serif font, with the word 'BUY-CENTENNIAL' in quotes and a larger font size. The entire advertisement is enclosed in a decorative border with stars along the left edge.

The Cornett Hotel

Proprietor of the Cornett House in Pell City from 1893. By an unfortunate fire, its furnishings, but was soon in position to continue the business in other buildings built in 1902 by Mr. Cornett and his brother, G. P., (pictured above) was one of the most comfortable and airy hotel buildings in North Alabama." It was located on the corner of the Southern Railway and the Seaboard Air Line (now First Avenue), a block of the courthouse and the business center of town. (Photo Courtesy

"...So King George, Being A Strong Believer In The Domino Theory, Decided To Go To War With The Colonies."

Cornett Hotel - circa 1902