Duran makes donation to Humane Society

Students from Duran Jr. High's purple team recently presented Dr. Galen Sims and the St. Clair Humane Society with a $350 contribution as well as food, blankets and cleaning materials that they raised for a community project. Ms. Jan Arnett said the team of about 135 is comprised of five home rooms. The money was collected in each home room over the last four or five weeks. Pictured (front row, from

ST. CLAIR BUILDING SCHOOLS

PELL CITY, Dec. 31 — Work has begun on St. Clair County's largest school building program in history.

Education Superintendent Hugh H. Williamson said new projects are underway at Pell City, Ashville and Ragland which will cost $1,034,000.

The Pell City project includes new junior high school with 17 classrooms, administrative offices and auditorium-gymnasium and new high school gymnasium.

RAGLAND WILL HAVE eight new classrooms, cafeteria, administrative offices and gymnasium-cafeteria.

The Ashville contract calls for a new high school, home economics and vocational agricultural departments, administrative offices and gymnasium-cafeteria.

Building is being done through a 20-year extension of a five-mill tax voted on by the county electorate.

Williamson said the contract should be complete by October, 1966.

Scott Brothers Construction Co. of Alexander City has the contract. Architect is Henry Sprott Long.

City To Barricade Streets Leading To High School, Duran

In an effort to prevent a congested and hazardous condition at Pell City High School and Duran Junior High School, the Pell City Council Monday night approved a plan which will barricade 12th Street and Second Avenue South in the area around the schools from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. each school day.

A barricade will be placed on 2nd Avenue, South, on the left side of Duran, one will be placed at the entrance to 12th Street just off Highway 78, one will be placed on First Avenue South at the entrance to 12th Street and another will block a driveway which runs around the back of the high school.

Mayor Hugh Williamson said the plan had been worked out with officials of the two

Mental Health Authority, added his comments to Dr. Doran's, asking the Council to consider the request.

--Heard Sherman Hill, a resident of the Billy Walker Subdivision in the Seddon community, ask that an approximate two-block long road to his property be chirted by the City. The Council referred the matter to the streets committee for study.

--Appointed Marlin Huggins to the Pell City Industrial Development Board, replacing Ed Ash who resigned several months ago.

--Approved the final draft of subdivision regulations. The regulations, after approval by the city's planning commission, will be published some time during the month of September.

Street and another will block a driveway which runs around the back of the high school.

Mayor Hugh Williamson said the plan had been worked out with officials of the two schools and the Board of Education in an effort to stop automobiles from "going around and around the schools creating an extremely congested and hazardous condition." Police Chief Ruble Bowlin approved the plan and was instructed by the Council to get the barricades up as soon as possible.

The Council also discussed the possibility of making 12th Street a one-way street, but will make a decision after determining the results of the barricades.

The Council adopted a resolution Monday night which classifies the jobs of all city employees, with full job descriptions to be written and published as soon as possible.

In other business Monday night, the Council:

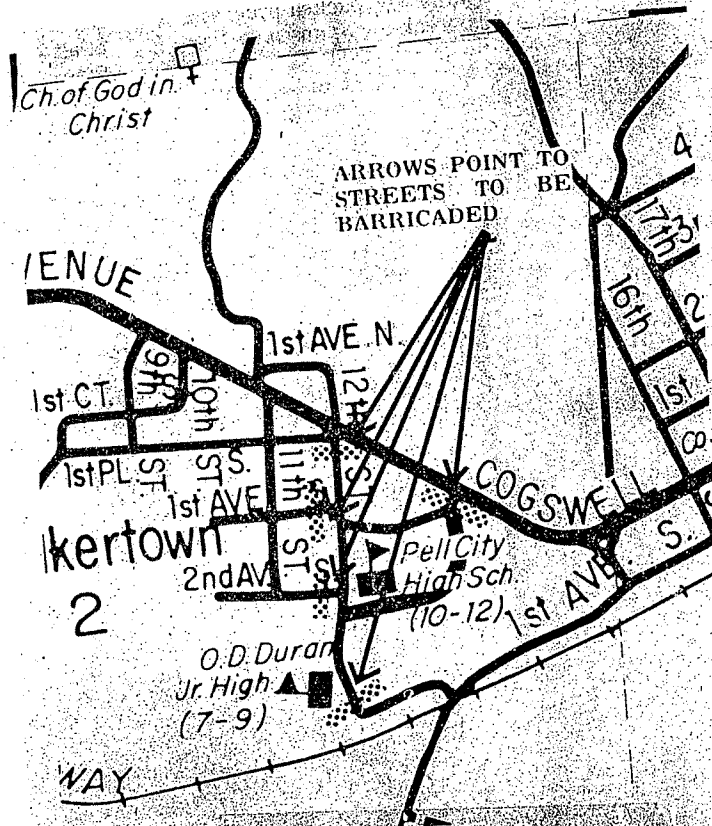

--Heard Mrs. Vickie Brown, director of the St. Clair Child Development Center, ask that the Center be included in the City's budget appropriations for the coming fiscal year, and also heard Dr. Layton D. Dorman, executive director of the Jefferson-Blount-St. Clair Mental Health Authority, make a similar request. # O. D. Duran's Death Shocks Community

Our town should be getting used to shocks. A few weeks ago a fine young man and a beautiful little girl of our community lost their lives in an automobile wreck.

Tuesday morning it was the sudden unexpected death of Orville David Duran that was a shocker, a real jolt to the happiness of this community. When death comes to anyone it is an awesome thing, but when news of the death of a well known and highly respected and loved member of the community comes singing over the wires early of a morning it is something that gets hard to live with.

O. D. Duran, as he was known to a legion of friends, was 50 years old. In that comparatively short span of half a hundred years he had accomplished more than many, many of us do in more than a lifetime. He was born on a farm near Albertville in Marshall county. He formed early plans for an education, after high school attended Jacksonville State, Howard College and finally the University of Alabama where he won his Masters Degree after an earlier degree at Howard.

He worked hard for his education. He taught school and returned to college, going in the summer months, at any time he could make a chance for himself. He came to Pell City in the late 1930's, first worked in the then new farm program with the Extension Service. Then he started teaching school, at Pell City's Grammar school, and as his own personal education progressed at Pell City's junior high school, and then after his Masters degree was principal of Pell City high school. While principal at Pell City he was a candidate for and was elected County Superintendent of Education, a position he held with distinction at his death.

Along the way he felt the call to preach. A devout Baptist he studied hard again to prepare himself for this calling. Then he was ordained a Baptist minister and along with his already heavy work load he held part time and full pastorates at several churches in the county.

Perhaps his great love at the time of death was teaching the Men's Barraca Class at the First Baptist church.

Members of ways like to of the class was the first ever heard eagerly expecting to hear interpretation of the Bible. We buried him Wednesday the last day of the month, Dr. Ault flew back for the service by two other Rev. Marvi of the class will tell you he was the finest teacher they ever heard, and they came eagerly every Sunday morn-

of the Bible was amazing.
We buried this most useful man Wednesday afternoon on the last day of June. His pas-flew back from a Baptist convention in Miami to conduct the services. He was assisted by two other devout ministers,

Rev. Marvin Heflin and Rev.

Laney Bain. Services were conducted at the First Baptist church, where he was a member for many years and a church to which he had devoted so much service and where he had spent so many happy hours. Interment was in Valley Hill cemetery. The gracious funeral was directed by the ever reliable Joe Kil-groe and his able assistants.
He leaves behind a devoted wife, Mrs. Janice Duran, two children, James Edward Duran and a daughter Mrs. Saun-dra Barrett, and two sisters
Miss Lellia Duran and Mrs.

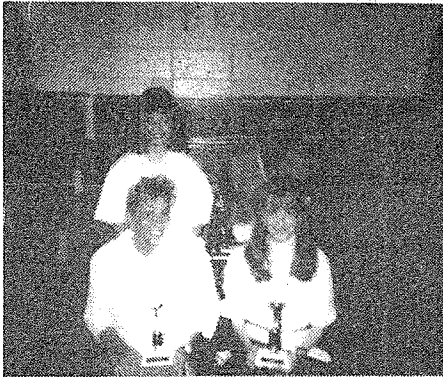

Deland Crowe.
Pall bearers were Paul
Turner, Judge Hoyt Hamilton,
Ed Holladay, Hugh Hardy
Williamson, David Jackson and Elza Sims. Honorary pallbearers were members of the Barraca Class, County Board of Education, all ministers of the county, all school principals in the county, Pat Roberson, Roy Gibson, Travis Du-Boise and Carl Riddle.
Orville Duran's life could be well written with this sentence; "A lifetime of service dedicated to Christian religion and to education." (eb)

STANDARDS FOR STUDENTS

1. All teachers have the same authority over all students. Students will obey all teachers at all times.
2. A student may be suspended by the principal for a maximum of three (3) days during which they will receive no credit for those days, nor will they be allowed to make up work missed during the period of suspension. Following reasons:
  - A. Fighting on the busses, in school buildings, or on the school grounds.
  - B. Students leaving school without permission, cutting classes while at school, or not attending school after leaving home to attend.
  - C. Poor attitudes, insubordination, and undesirable behavior or language expressed toward their peers or faculty.
  - D. POSSESSION or USE of fireworks, knives or other lethal weapons.
  - E. Defacing or destroying school property or equipment.
3. To be reinstated in school following a suspension, there must be a conference between the principal, the student and his/her parents, and any other person whom the principal requests to be present.

4. Students will not be taken from class or excused from school except in an emergency. The principal must have contact with the parents before the student leaves. Under no circumstance should a student leave the school grounds without a permit from the principal.
5. All absences must be accompanied by a doctor's or parent's written statement of excuse that the child was not able to attend school. AFTER TEN ABSENCES only a doctor's statement or a death in the immediate family is acceptable reasons for excused absences. Absences beyond these ten days is automatic failure during either semester.
6. No visitors are to be allowed in classes without written permission from principal.
7. Students should go to home rooms as soon as possible after entering the building in the morning.
8. Students should not be in the halls during class periods without a pass. They should go to lockers and rest rooms during the breaks between classes.
9. Students should not go to the lockers or rest rooms during the fourth period (lunch).
10. Students, whether eating or not, must go to the lunchroom at the assigned time.

11. Students are to be counted tardy if they enter the room after the tardy bell.
(Exception: Late bus)
12. Students will avoid familiarity and petting anywhere at school, or on the school grounds.
13. Students will not use the school telephone.
14. Students are NOT to chew gum at Duran Jr. High.
15. No smoking in the school building or on the school grounds.
16. Students are not to bring radios to school.
17. GIRLS: Students will be well groomed at all times. No shorts, slacks (of any type), pedal pushers, or see through garments will be worn at any time other than those special occasions as designated by the Principal and Faculty. Girls should be dressed in a ladylike manner at ALL times.
18. BOYS: Students will be well groomed at all times. No shorts will be worn at any time other than special occasions designated by Principal and Faculty. Shirts will be worn inside trousers at ALL times. Clean shaven at all times. No beards, goatees, or mustaches will be tolerated at any time. Haircuts will be off the eyebrows, ears and out or the collar at all times.

19. Married students must receive special permission through their Principal from the St. Clair County Board of Education in order to attend school.
20. Extra curricular activities are an integral part of the total school program and students are expected to behave in the same manner as if they were attending an event during the school day.
21. Absolutely no activity such as boycotts, picketing, demonstration or any other form of protest that in any way interferes with the normal school operation will be allowed. Any student instigating and/or participating in any of the activities such as is designated by the Principal or his appointed representative to cause a disturbance in the school or on the campus or on school busses will face automatic suspension and possible expulsion.
22. Any student found cheating will be disciplined and will receive no credit for the work on which he has cheated.
