

potato yet was brought to this office by Mr. J. B. Reynolds. It weighed ten pounds and was raised in the flat-lands.

Fell City Echo: The stock is all subscribed for a National Bank at this place, and will be opened as soon as the Howard & Maxwell block is completed, which will be about the middle of December.

A special from Sylacauga says: Whisky or no whisky is the important question with us just at present. We already have it four miles from town, as fiery as the panting soul

Maxwell Building - Bell City