then we win say something about he has done in the past. There is no tell-ing what he may do in the future.

He is eashier of the First Bank of City, which institution he helped the ganize. He is president of the First Ban of Lincoln and vice president of the Benk of Odenville. He was in the organization of all these institutions and one of the most active spirits. He is vice president of the Alabama State Bar association and for six years has been secretary-treasure of the Alshania Bankers association He as president of the Alabama Press associa writers association.
At home he is one of the most writers' association builders of Pell City, closely identified with every public interest in the town and community. He is editor of the Pell City Progress, a lawyer, banker and insurance man. He also deals in real estate.

His hobby is education, and has always been most active in building up and improving the school conditions of his home town and community

When the governments of the United: States and Spain fell out over a misunderstanding between the latter and some of her children, Mr. Tilton joined in and did vallant service. He served two years in the navy.

He has the distinction of having led the first landing of Americans on the Island of Cuba. He landed with his party at Grantanimo several days before General Shatter landed with his army In recognition of his work Mr. Tilton re ceived a special service medal from United States Congress Such service is characteristic of
