

Pell City Independent formed in 1978

The Rev. Bill Gray has been the pastor at Pell City Independent Church for the past 11 years. He came on board in 1983, just five years after the church was formed.

Today, Pell City Independent has an average attendance of 300 to 400 during Sunday morning worship.

The church does not offer Sunday school, but they do have a Children's Church ministry.

Morning worship is offered at 10:45 and Sunday night worship is at 6.

Wednesday night services start at 7.

Gray said the boys and girls of the church participate in Royal Rangers and Missionettes during Wednesday night service.

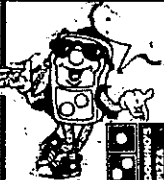

The church also offers a ministry for the seniors, the singles and the young adults.

One of the biggest ministries of the church is Pell City Christian Academy, a private school that now has about 210 students enrolled.
