MESSAGES

Dear Rose,
 First to wish you success and happiness
 I must first tell you that I have always thought of you as a very dear friend and always hope to remain as much.

Dear Rose,
 These few words are to wish you much success and happiness in your future life.

Dear Rose,
 We have gone through our high school days together and our days have been very pleasant to gether. I wish you success and happiness in your future
 life.
 On the many years of pleasure together I find you to be a true and longest friend, one to trust and one to confide in. And in future years I will always bear a mark which was made by the friendship of Rose Gray.
 With Love

Dear Rose.

During the few years that I have known you, you have always been a very dear friend. I wish

Dear Rose,

May all your days be as bright and happy as your High School days in Pell City High have been.

It has been a happy privilege to be one of your leaders through High School.

My interest in you as you leave this school where we have spent so many happy days working together will be no less than I have been while I have watched you climb the ladder step by step. "Keep climbing"
I wish for you a life filled with happiness and success.

Dear Rose,

It is a great pleasure to have the honor of teaching you during your last year in high school.

Your pleasantness adds much to the senior class and will prove a great asset to your future.

May you find comfort, success and happiness wherever you may go.

I am glad to be able to say, "You are a good student"

May your education continue through college -

Sincerely, W.H. Black.

P.S. I hope the Rose of our senior class will continue to grow intellectually and in service for humanity.

Dear Rose,

I shall always remember you as one of the most cheerful, vivacious girls in the P. C. H. S. Senior Class of '27.

May your training here enable you to have always the best that life holds for one-happiness.

It has been a pleasure to have you in my History Class.

With love,

Carolyn Ford

Girls Play Cropwell

A large crowd from Pell City accompanied the girls' team to Cropwell last Thursday afternoon when they were defeated by the Cropwell girls. The Pell City co-eds played a very good game, holding their opponents down to a tie in the first part of the game, but in the last half, letting the score of the opposing team run up to 28, while they only had 13 points.

Boys Defeat Odenville.

The Pell City boys' basket-ball team won another victory Friday afternoon when they defeated the Odenville five at a score of 33 to 8. A very interesting game was played and Pell City kept in the lead from the first of the game. All the players did good work, Harmon Gray leading in pitching the goals.

This is the fifth victory for the boys, out of the six games they have played. We are very proud of the good record they have made.

Girls Victorious in Game.

The Pell City girls went to Oneonta Friday and defeated the Oneonta girls at a final score of 21-17. At the end of the game the score stood 16-16 but another quarter was played which brought Pell City in the lead.

A very pleasant trip was enjoyed by our girls, and they reported that they were never treated better anywhere.

The team is made up of these players: Centers--Eufa Walker and Rose Garry. Guards--Elizabeth VanDevander, Mildred Huggins and Minnie Garry. Forwards--Jessie Mathis, Evelyn Pearson and Florence Loneragan.

Birthday Party

One of the pretty events of the early spring was a party given by Evelyn Pearson at her home Friday afternoon from 3:30 to 6:00 o'clock, in celebration of her fifteenth anniversary.

The house was attractively decorated with quantities of jonquils and potted plants. The color scheme of yellow and green being carried out in the refreshments and mints. A number of games and contests were enjoyed. The winner in first contest being Betty Eatman who was given a hand made linen handkerchief. The prize for the cross word puzzle contest was won by Madeline Martin and Elizabeth VanDevander. The prize was a box of candy.

Many useful gifts were showered on the honoree. About five o'clock this happy bunch of girls were ushered into the dining room where a sweet course was served.

Those enjoying this hospitality were Misses Alta Bain, Lucile Burns, Sarah Clonergan, Bettie Eatman, Anna Ekwurzel, Rose Gary, Minnie Gary, Florene Lonergan, Odel Jones, Inez Love, Madeline Martin, Mary Ruth Martin, Sarah Smith, Jimmie Sue Shockley, Eula Walker, Ella Mae Willingham, Jessie Williams and Elizabeth VanDevander.

Miss Elizabeth Vandevander entertained a number of girls at her home last Saturday night with a spend-the-night-party. Those who attended were: Misses Anna Ekwurzel, Betty Eatman, Rose Gary and Sarah Smith. Everyone who attended reported a delightful evening.

Silver Tea.

The Parent Teachers Association gave a silver tea Friday evening at the home Mrs. T. N. Eatman for the benefit of the school library. The High School is very grateful to the Parent Teachers Association for their efforts to build up our library.

Everyone present enjoyed the occasion. Tea and sandwiches were served by the hostess assisted by Misses Bayless and Adams.

SOCIETY NEWS

On Friday evening of last week Miss Rose Gary entertained a number of young people at her home in honor of the Montevallo and Southern girls, who are at home for the spring holidays. Everyone reported a delightful evening.

SYNOPSIS:

ACT I. Place—A room in the Faxton residence.

Paul Revere comes to Concord from Boston and is the guest of Mr. Faxton. He falls in love with Molly. But Faxton, who is loyal to King George, objects and favors the suit of Captain Marks, a British Army Officer. Paul is called away to go on his famous ride.

ACT II. Same scene, several months later.

Paul is now in the American Army. He comes to see Molly and learns of Captain Marks' plan to kidnap Jackie. He overpowers Sweeney and takes his place at the window, and in this way gets Jackie from Captain Marks. He then brings Jackie back into the house, and is captured by the British. However, he escapes by Molly's aid.

ACT III. Scene I. (Eight years later)—A room in the tavern.

Dinah and Rastus have been sold to Sweeney and are lamenting the sorrows of the Faxtons' when Paul enters. They tell him of the forged letters which had sent him away from Molly. He buys back the Faxton property and they start to Faxton's house.

Scene II. (Same as Act I.) Reconciliation with Faxton and Molly.

Benefit Piano Fund.

STORY OF THE PLAY

"The Gypsy Rover" is in three acts and is built around the character of Rob, later known as Sir Gilbert Howe, of English Nobility. Rob is stolen when an infant, by his nurse, Meg, who later becomes the wife of Marto, a gypsy. Rob grows to manhood amongst the gypsies, believing Meg and Marto to be his parents.

It happens one day, while riding with her fiancée, Lord Craven, Lady Constance Martendale becomes lost in the woods. They wander to the gypsy camp, where Constance and Rob meet and fall in love at first sight. Craven objects to Rob's attitude, but in a very funny comedy scene with Marto and Sinfo, he is made to tell Sir George, who later comes in search of Constance, that Rob is a charming fellow. In act two Rob goes to the home of Constance and serenades her. They plan to elope but are overheard by Craven who informs Sir George, and plans are made to capture Rob. This is successfully accomplished and Rob is thrown into prison, but later escapes.

Two years elapse and Rob has come into his estates, his identity having been proven by Meg. He becomes a successful composer, a friend of the Prince, and a social lion. Constance has remained true to her love for Rob and on his return to England, he woos and wins her for his wife.
