May you never take one single breath for granted
 God forbid love ever leave you empty-handed
 I hope you still feel small when you stand beside the ocean
 Whenever one door closes, I hope one more opens
 Promise me that you'll give faith a fighting chance.
 I hope you never fear those mountains in the distance
 Never settle for the path of least resistance
 Livin' might mean takin' chances, but they're worth takin'
 Lovin' might be a mistake, but it's worth makin'
 Don't let some hell-bent heart leave you bitter
 When you come close to sellin' out, reconsider
 Give the heavens above more than just a passing glance
AND WHEN YOU GET THE CHANCE TO SIT IT OUT OR DANCE
I HOPE YOU DANCE!

Love, Mom

Jessica we are so proud of you! Congratulations and Good Luck! Remember Proverbs 3:5-6. "Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths." And Jeremiah 29:11. "For I know the plans I have for you", says the Lord. "They are the plans for good and not for disaster to give you a future and a hope."

We love you!
Mom, Dad, & Evan

BETHANY

We are proud of you and your accomplishments. As you travel to Auburn in the fall you will take with you the education provided by all of your teachers, the values of your family and church, and countless experiences with friends and classmates. Use these as building blocks to continue to build the person you aim to be. Always keep God first in your life.

We love you,

The Pell City High School faculty, staff and students would like to say a special good-bye to Mrs. Ginger Kelley and Mr. Steve Simmons. Mrs. Kelley is retiring after spending 27 of her 28 years of teaching at PCHS. Mrs. Kelly says, "Teaching at PCHS has been a wonderful experience for me, especially seeing students grow through the years and become outstanding leaders outside of school. Getting to know different faculty members and becoming life long friends with some — hold a special place in my heart. It will be impossible to completely say good-bye; I will always be interested in what's going on at the school. I'm proud that I was once part of the history of PCHS." Mrs. Kelley will have time to spend with her family. Lionel, Jennifer and Brad look forward to having her at home, but we will miss her quiet smile. She indeed is a very special person.

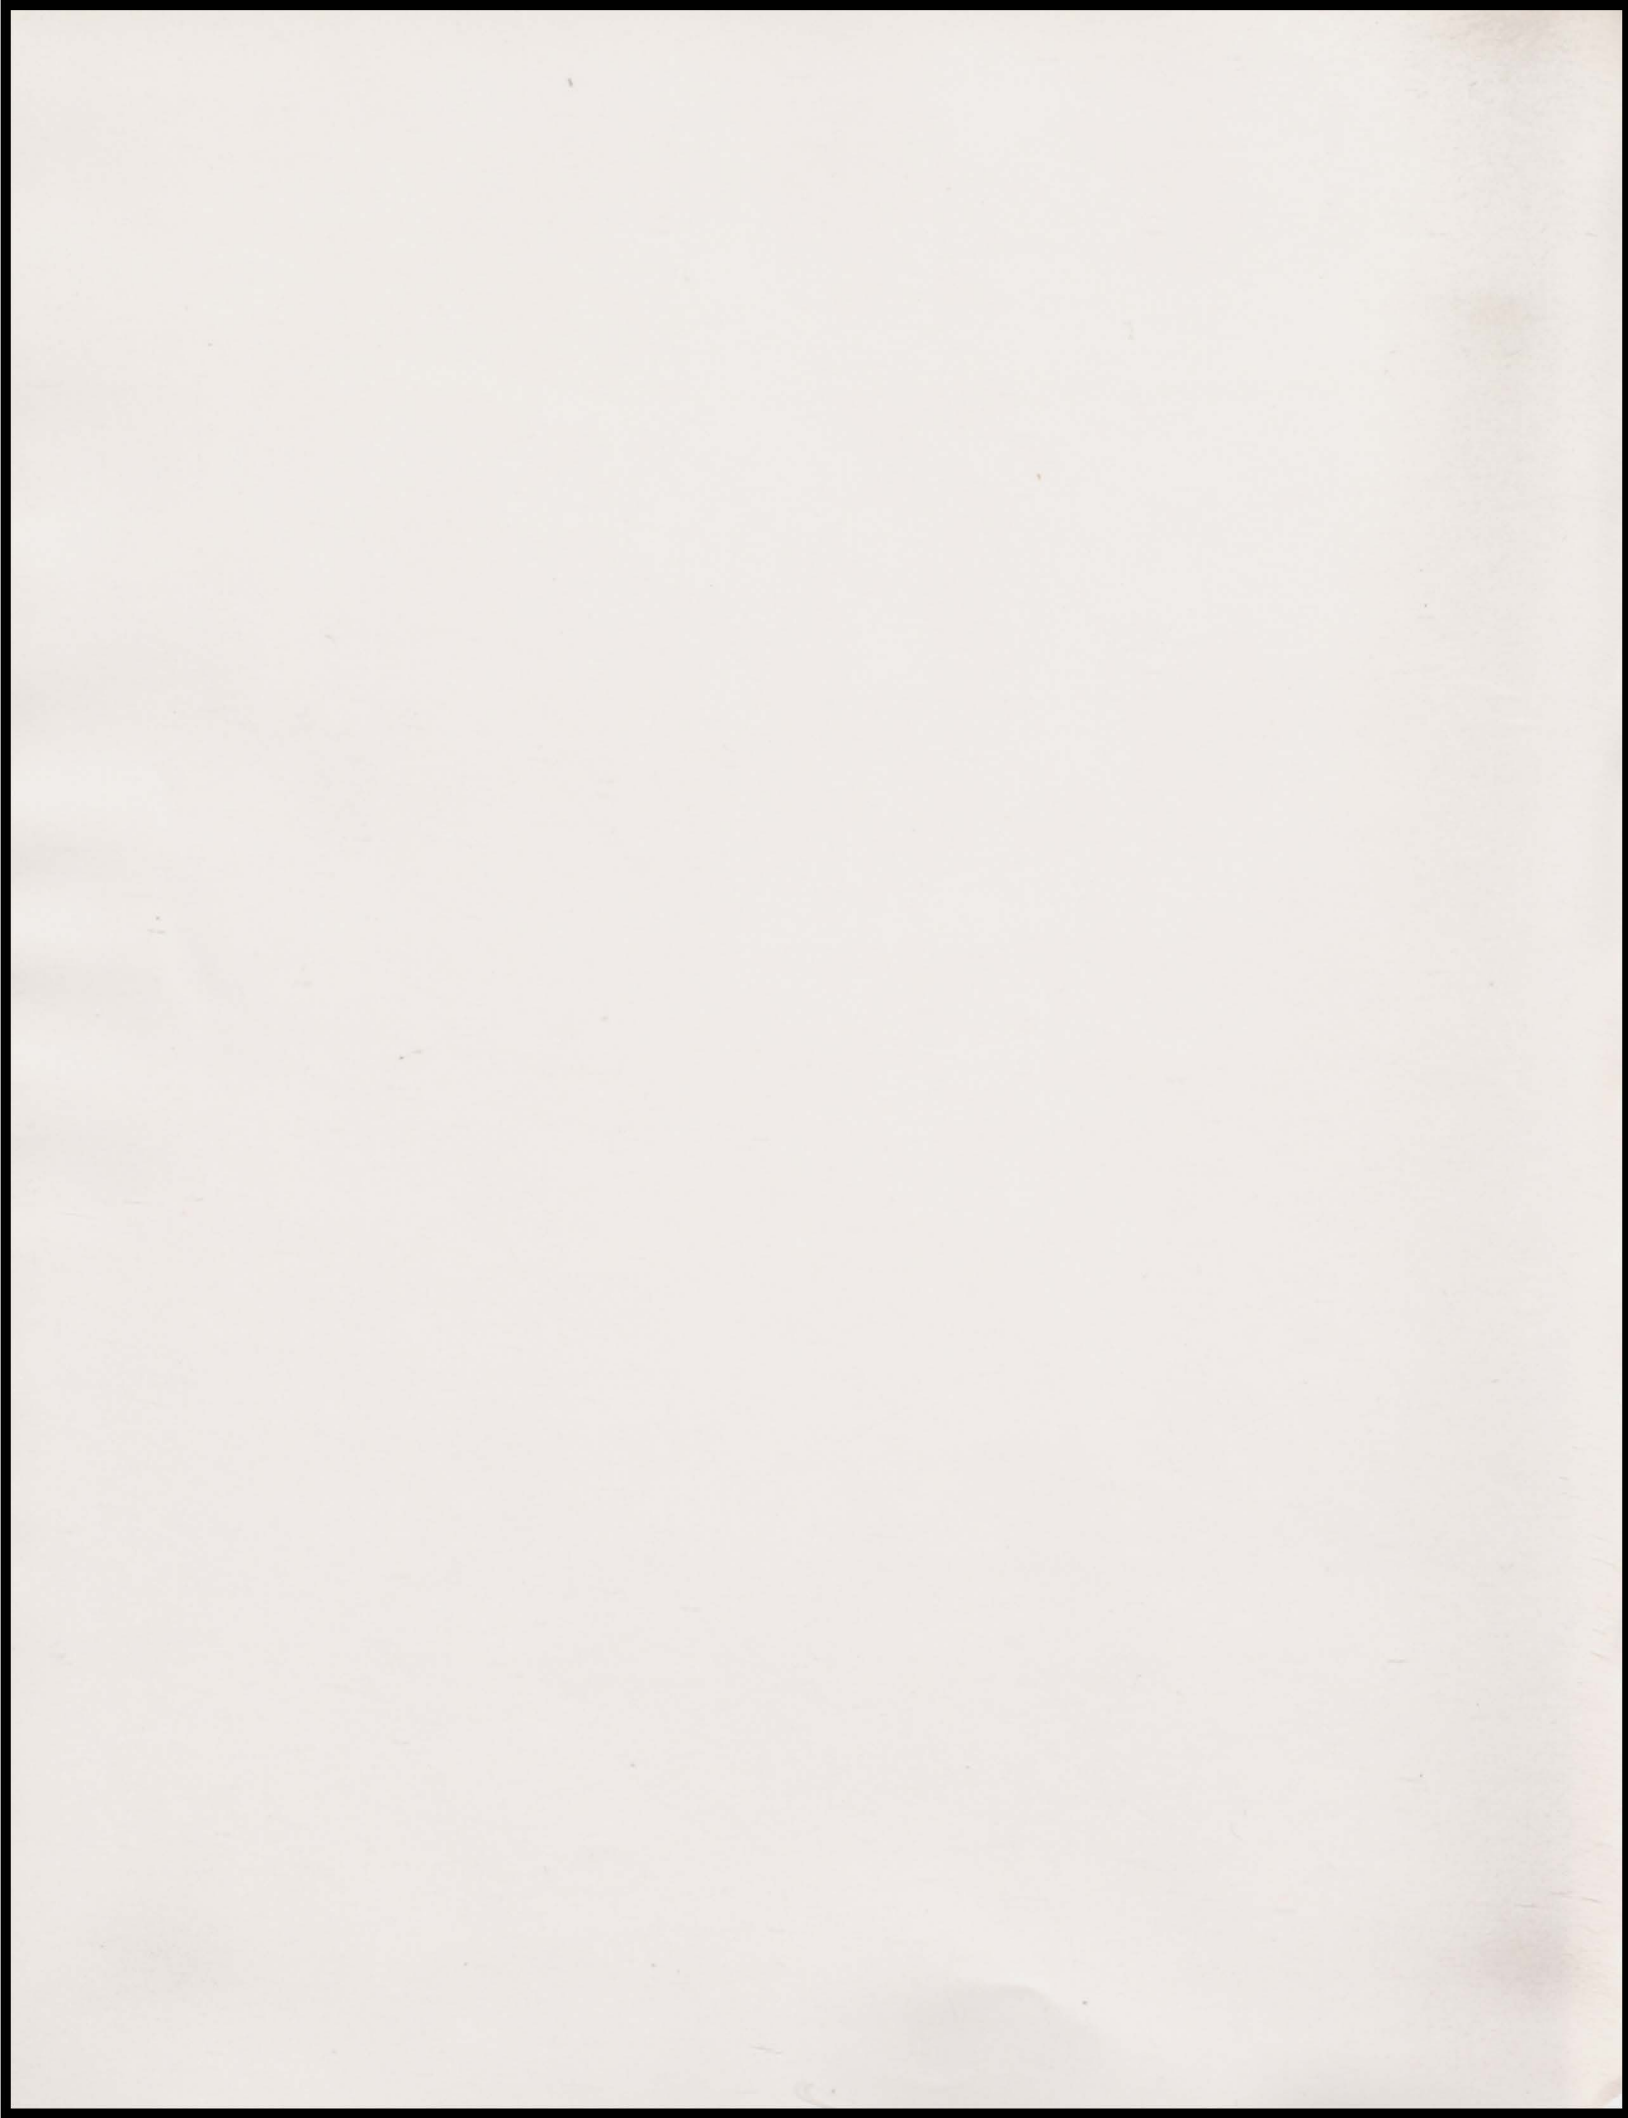

We would also like to extend a special thank you to Mr. Steve Simmons for completing the school year as our interim principal. Mr. Simmons has been a very positive influence on the faculty, staff and students at PCHS. He always has a kind word and a bright smile for everyone that crosses his path. Mr. Simmons has many characteristics that we needed at this school. He is encouraging, caring and involved in the student's lives. We wish you the best!

e n d u r i n g FREEDOM

Tuesday, September 11, 2001, will be remembered as a tragic day that changed the world. That morning, a plot, masterminded by terrorist Osama bin Laden and the al-Qaeda network, was put into action. Two hijacked commercial airliners were flown into New York City's World Trade Center Towers, ultimately causing their collapse. Immediately following the incident, another hijacked airliner crashed into one side of the Pentagon in Washington, D.C, and a fourth plane crashed in Pennsylvania. Thousands of lives were lost, citizens were terrified and the world was in shock.

Following that mournful day the United States experienced anthrax scares, continued security threats and the reality of war. Despite the horror, fear and heartache, U.S. citizens united and their patriotic spirit soared. President Bush promised: "We will not tire, we will not falter, we will not fail." Through that statement and the remarkable sense of national pride exuded by U.S. citizens, it became evident that no threat, great or small, could deter the United States resolve for enduring freedom.
